INTRODUCTION

Adult offenders who commit felonies on or after July 1, 1984, are subject to the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act (SRA). The enabling legislation (RCW 9.94A) contains guidelines and procedures used by the court to impose sentences. The SRA is based on a determinate sentencing model and eliminates extensive periods of parole and probation. When sufficient and compelling reasons exist, sentences outside the presumptive ranges can be imposed by the court. Sentences which depart from the standard presumptive ranges must meet certain requirements and can be appealed by either the prosecutor or the defense.

The goal of the sentencing guidelines system is to ensure that offenders who commit similar crimes and have similar criminal histories receive equivalent sentences. Presumptive sentencing schedules are structured so that offenses involving greater harm to a victim and society result in greater punishment. The guidelines apply equally to offenders in all parts of the state, without discrimination as to any element that does not relate to the crime or a defendant's previous record.

The Sentencing Guidelines Commission developed the initial set of guidelines and continues to advise the legislature on necessary adjustments. The Commission consists of 15 voting members appointed by the Governor. These members include four Superior Court judges, two defense attorneys, two prosecutors, three citizens, the directors of three state agencies, and the chief of a local law enforcement agency. Four legislators (two representatives and two senators) are appointed by the leadership of the House and the Senate and serve as nonvoting members.

In order to advise the legislature, the Commission requires accurate information on felony offenders, their crimes, and the sentences imposed under the Sentencing Reform Act. This information is derived from copies of Judgment and Sentence forms sent by the court clerks to the Commission office. Any case involving an exceptional sentence must include written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. A computerized database allows the Commission staff to produce descriptive information on sentences and also to analyze the prison and jail population consequences of changes in the law.

The Commission also prepares statistical summaries of sentencing practices under the Sentencing Reform Act. Please contact the Commission office for information on cost and availability of these reports, if you have questions about the guidelines, or if you desire copies of minutes from Commission meetings.

USE OF THIS MANUAL

This edition of the manual is updated to reflect the 1991 Session Laws. Manual users should retain earlier editions of this manual for guidance on offenses committed prior to July 1991. Those interested in a comprehensive legal analysis of the Sentencing Reform Act are advised to read Sentencing in Washington by David Boerner. This publication is available through Butterworth Legal Publishers.

SECTION I. SENTENCING GUIDELINES

This section explains the rules for applying the sentencing guidelines to felony crimes committed after June 30, 1991. The instructions cover the following:

- Offense Seriousness Level
- Offender Score
- Standard Sentence Range
- Sentencing Options
- Review of Sentences
- Penalty and Modification Hearing
- Discharge and Vacation of Conviction Record

STEP 1 - DETERMINING THE OFFENSE SERIOUSNESS LEVEL

Determine the Offense Seriousness Level by the offense of conviction. For example, if an offender was charged with Second Degree Robbery but pleaded guilty or was tried and convicted of First Degree Theft, the Seriousness Level is determined by the First Degree Theft conviction.

The Seriousness Level is measured on the vertical axis of the sentencing guidelines grid. (See Table 1, page I-2). RCW 9.94A.320 lists the crimes included within each Seriousness Level. (See Table 2, page I-3). Felony offenses are divided into 15 levels of seriousness, ranging from low (Level I) to high (Level XV). Offenses in the same level are considered equivalent in seriousness.

The 1990 Legislature amended the sentencing grid for the first time, adding a new Seriousness Level and changing the penalties for Level XI. This edition of the manual includes the 1990 Sentencing Grid (see Table 2) and also includes the previous version of the grid (see Appendix C). Crimes committed after June 30, 1990 should be scored according to the 1990 grid.

Some felonies rarely charged or recently created by the legislature are not included in the Seriousness Level Table and do not have a standard sentence range; thus, no sentence calculations are necessary. Page I-19 describes the sentencing options for unranked crimes.

STEP 2 - DETERMINING THE OFFENDER SCORE

The Offender Score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing guidelines grid. An offender can receive anywhere from 0 to 9+ points on that axis. In general terms, the number of points an offender receives depends on four factors: 1) the number of prior felony criminal convictions; 2) the relationship between any prior offense(s) and the current offense of conviction; 3) the presence of multiple prior or current convictions; and 4) whether the crime was committed while the offender was on community placement.

The following discussion covers calculation of the Offender Score. Included in this discussion are how to collect criminal history, how to score history, how to score multiple prior convictions, and how to score the offender's status.

Criminal History Collection

RCW 9.94A.030(12) defines criminal history to include the defendant's prior adult convictions in this state, federal court, and elsewhere, as well as adjudications in juvenile court if certain tests are met. Some rules on criminal history refer to the crime's classification (A, B, or C). Appendix B contains a list of felony offenses by class and an explanation of how to determine the crime classification of a felony.

Adult Criminal History: The Criminal Justice Information Act (RCW 10.98) established the Washington State Patrol Identification and Criminal History Section as the primary source of information on state felony conviction histories. After filing charges, prosecutors contact this section for an offender's Washington criminal history. In this act, the judge is directed to ensure the felony defendant has been fingerprinted and an arrest and fingerprint form has been transmitted to the Washington State Patrol (RCW 10.98.050(2)). For out-of-state or federal criminal history information, prosecutors need to contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation for referral to the appropriate sources.

When gathering an offender's criminal history, focus on felony convictions. With one exception, misdemeanors are not calculated into the Offender Score. This exception is current convictions of felony traffic offenses*, where serious traffic offenses are included in the Offender Score.

Collect information, if it is available, on whether an offender has participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense. This information is likely only to be available through county records.

* Vehicular Homicide, Vehicular Assault, Hit-and-Run Injury Accident, and Attempting to Elude a Pursuing Police Vehicle.

Persons who have participated in such a program do not meet the definition of a first-time offender (RCW 9.94A.030(20)).

A conviction is defined to include a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty. A prior conviction is defined as one existing before the date of the sentencing for the offense for which the Offender Score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the Offender Score is being computed are deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

Convictions with a finding of sexual motivation should be noted. A sexual motivation finding changes the scoring rules on prior offenses and influences the sentencing option. Since this finding is possible only for crimes committed after July 1, 1990, some time will have to pass before sexual motivation appears as part of an offender's official criminal history.

All prior adult felony convictions are counted separately, except:

- A) Prior adult offenses found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct. These are to be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest Offender Score.
- B) Multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986. Priors served concurrently are to be counted as one offense, using the conviction for the offense that yields the highest Offender Score.
- C) For other prior convictions served concurrently, the current sentencing court shall determine whether those offenses shall be counted as one or separate offenses. If counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest Offender Score is to be used.

Prior convictions for anticipatory offenses (criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy) are scored as if they were convictions for completed offenses. If the present conviction is an anticipatory offense, each prior conviction counts the same as if the present conviction were a completed offense.

RCW 9.94A.030(12)(a) stipulates that where it is known, criminal history for a defendant shall include the length and terms of any probation as well as whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration. This information is often collected as part of the Presentence Investigation Report.

Juvenile Criminal History: Some, but not all, juvenile history is to be included as part of the Offender Score. RCW 9.94A.030(12)(b) and 9.94A.360(4) spell out the criteria to be used when scoring juvenile criminal history:

Basic Eligibility

- The conduct must have resulted in an adjudication of guilt in juvenile court (i.e., diversions do not count).
- The juvenile offense must have been a felony unless the current crime is a felony traffic offense, in which case serious misdemeanor traffic offenses are included.

Special Considerations

- If the conviction was for a sex offense, the offense is always included in history.
- For class A offenses, the offender must have been 15 years of age or older when the crime was committed.
- For offenses other than sex offenses and Class A felonies, the offender must have been 15 years of age or older when the crime was committed and must have been less than 23 when the current offense of conviction was committed.

RCW 13.50.050(9) provides that after a charge has been filed, juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to the prosecution and defense counsel, subject to the rules of discovery. RCW 13.50.050(15) provides that the sealing of a juvenile record of any Class A and sex offense adjudication is nullified by a subsequent adult felony conviction.

It is necessary to determine the date of adjudication for juvenile offenses. All offenses adjudicated on the same date count as one offense except for prior convictions for violent offenses with separate victims, which shall count as separate offenses. (RCW 9.94A.360(6)(b)). Use the offense which yields the highest Offender Score as criminal history for cases adjudicated on the same day which do not meet this exclusion rule. As is the case with adult history, in most instances this offense will be the one with the highest Seriousness Level.

"Washout" of Certain Prior Felonies: In certain instances, prior felony convictions are not calculated into the Offender Score. The rules regarding which prior felonies are included can be found in RCW 9.94A.360(2) and are summarized as follows:

- A) Prior Class A and sex offense felony convictions are always included in the offender score.
- B) Prior Class B felony convictions are not included if: 1) the offender has spent ten years in the community; and 2) has not been convicted of any felonies since the most recent of either the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), or the day the sentence was entered.
- C) Prior Class C felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the most recent of either the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment) or the day the sentence was entered.
- D) Prior serious traffic convictions* are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses since the most recent of either the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment) or the day the sentence was entered.
- (E) Once a crime meets the washout rules, it is always washed out. The washout test can be met by any consecutive five- or ten-year period of crime-free behavior.

The Sentencing Reform Act allows the record of conviction to be vacated under certain conditions. RCW 9.94A.230 provides that vacated convictions "shall not be included in the offender's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction." This vacation does not affect or prevent the use of an offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution.

The eligibility rules for vacation of conviction record are similar to the washout rules. Since the washout rules are automatic and do not require court action, an offense will washout before formal

* RCW 9.94A.030(26)(a) defines serious traffic offenses as: "Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5))..."

record vacation occurs. (The main distinction between vacation of record of conviction and washout is that after vacation, an offender can indicate on employment forms that he or she was not convicted of that crime.)

Federal, Out-of-State, or Foreign Convictions: For a prior federal, out-of-state or foreign conviction, compare the elements of the offense in that jurisdiction to Washington State laws to determine how to score the offense (RCW 9.94A.360(3)). Judicial decisions on the comparability of non-Washington convictions will occur at the sentencing hearing.

Scoring Criminal History

Once the relevant prior convictions have been identified, the criminal history portion of the Offender Score can be calculated. The rules for scoring prior convictions are contained in RCW 9.94A.360.

To make application of these rules easier, the Offense Reference Sheets and Scoring Forms indicate the correct number of points for each prior conviction depending on the current offense. To use these forms correctly, an understanding of the criminal history rules is necessary. For example, the forms do not repeat the "washout" rules or the statutory requirements for juvenile history.

The scoring rules for a drug or a sex offense deserve special attention because of the increased points for priors. The definition section of the Sentencing Reform Act (RCW 9.94a.030) defines these categories as follows:

Drug Offense:

- A) Any felony violation of Chapter 69.50 RCW except Possession of a Controlled Substance or Forged Prescription for a Controlled Substance*;
- B) Any offense defined as a felony under federal law that relates to the possession, manufacture, distribution, or transportation of a controlled substance; or

* Please note that "Delivery of a Material in Lieu of a Controlled Substance" (RCW 69.50.401(c)) is defined as a drug offense; whereas, "Manufacture, Distribute, or Possess with Intent to Distribute an Imitation Controlled Substance" (RCW 69.52.030(1)) is not.

- C) Any out-of-state conviction for an offense that would be a felony classified as a drug offense under (A).

The 1989 Legislature amended the scoring rules so that prior and other current drug offenses included in the offender score with a current drug offense count three points.

Sex Offense:

- A) A felony that is a violation of Chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 (Incest) or 9.68A.090 (Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes) or an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit such crimes;
- B) A felony with a finding of sexual motivation; or
- C) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a sex offense under (A).

The 1990 Legislature amended the scoring rules so that sex offenses included in the Offender Score with a current sex offense count three points.

Scoring Multiple Current Convictions

Multiple convictions can also influence the Offender Score. Keep in mind that for multiple current offenses, separate sentence calculations are necessary for each offense because the law requires that each receive a separate sentence (RCW 9.94A.400).

Multiple Offense Scoring Steps:

- A) If the current offenses do not include two or more serious violent offenses* arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, apply RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a):
- Score each offense.

* Serious violent offenses: First Degree Murder, Homicide by Abuse, Second Degree Murder, First Degree Assault, First Degree Kidnapping, First Degree Rape, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

- For each offense, score the prior adult and juvenile convictions. Also, score the other current offenses on the scoring form line entitled "Other Current Offenses."
 - The court can find that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct and are to be counted as one crime. "Same criminal conduct" means two or more crimes that require the same criminal intent, are committed at the same time and place, and involve the same victim. (This definition does not apply in cases involving Vehicular Assault or Vehicular Homicide if the victims occupied the same vehicle. See RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a).)
 - Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the Offender Score is being computed are scored as "other current offenses."
- B) If the current offenses include two or more serious violent offenses arising from separate and distinct conduct, apply RCW 9.94A.400(1)(b):
- Score each offense.
 - Identify the serious violent offense with the highest Seriousness Level. Calculate the sentence for that crime using the offender's prior adult and juvenile convictions. Do not include any other current serious violent offenses as part of the Offender Score, but do include other current offenses that are not serious violent offenses.
 - Score all remaining serious violent current offenses, but for those offenses, calculate the offender's criminal history as zero.
 - For any current offenses that are not serious violent offenses, score according to the rules in A.

Example: An offender was convicted of one count of First Degree Theft and one count of Forgery. Both offenses arose from separate and distinct criminal conduct. Her criminal history consisted of one conviction for Second Degree Burglary. In this case, the rules in RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a) apply, and the theft and forgery must be separately scored. The prior burglary and the current forgery are included in the Offender Score for the theft, resulting in an Offender Score of 2 and a sentence range of 3 to 9 months. The prior burglary and the current theft are included in the Offender Score for the forgery, resulting in an Offender Score of 2 and a sentence range of 2 to 5 months. The sentence for each offense would run concurrently.

Example: An offender was convicted of one count of Second Degree Theft and one count of Second Degree Possession of Stolen Property. The court found that both counts encompassed the same criminal conduct and the offender had no criminal history. In this case, the other current offense is not counted in the Offender Score because RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a) stipulates that if some or all of the current offenses are found to encompass the same criminal conduct, then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime. Therefore, the theft and possession would both be scored with Offender Scores of zero, with a sentence range for each crime of 0 to 60 days. The sentence for each offense would run concurrently.

Example: An offender was convicted of two counts of First Degree Rape and one count of First Degree Assault. These offenses, all serious violent, arose from separate and distinct criminal conduct. His criminal history consisted of one Third Degree Assault conviction. The scoring for this offender follows the rules in RCW 9.94A.400(1)(b). First, the crime with the highest Seriousness Level must be identified and scored. Since First Degree Assault is more serious (Level XII) than First Degree Rape (Level XI), the First Degree Assault is scored, counting the prior Third Degree Assault as adult criminal history. This calculation would result in a sentence range of 102 to 136 months.

Next, the First Degree Rape convictions are scored using a criminal history of zero. These calculations result in two sentence ranges of 78 to 102 months. These three sentences would run consecutively.

Scoring Offender Status

The Offender Score also measures whether the offense was committed while the offender was under community placement. RCW 9.94A.360(18) applies to crimes committed on or after July 1, 1988. An additional point is added to the score under these circumstances.

STEP 3 - DETERMINING THE STANDARD SENTENCE RANGE

Sentencing Grid

Once the Offense Seriousness Level and Offender Score have been calculated, the preliminary standard sentence range can be established.

Determine the standard sentence range by referring to the sentencing grid (RCW 9.94A.310, Table 1, page I-2). For each current offense, the intersection of the column defined by the Offender Score and the row defined by the Offense Seriousness Level determines the standard sentence range.

Alternatively, the same range is produced for individual offenses on the Offense Reference Sheets (Section III). The court can sentence anywhere within this range.

If the crime was committed prior to July 1, 1990, the Sentencing Grid in Appendix C should be used to determine the sentence.

Attempt, Conspiracy, and Solicitation (Non-VUCSA)

For persons convicted of an anticipatory offense of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under Chapter 9A.28 RCW, the standard sentence range is determined by using the Offender Score and Offense Seriousness Level to determine the standard sentence range, then multiplying that range by 75 percent (RCW 9.94A.410). To simplify calculations, refer to the anticipatory offense grid (Table 3, page I-16). This adjustment does not apply to violations of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act (RCW 69.50), because these anticipatory offenses are punished under RCW 69.50.407, not RCW 9A.28.

Deadly Weapon Increase

For specified crimes, if the court makes a finding of fact or the jury returns a special verdict that the accused or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of the crime, the standard sentence range shall be increased.

Deadly weapon is defined in RCW 9.94A.125 as: "an implement or instrument which has the capacity to inflict death and from the manner in which it is used, is likely to produce or may easily and readily produce death. The following instruments are included in the term deadly weapon: Blackjack, sling shot, billy, sand club, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than three inches, any razor with an unguarded blade, any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club, any explosive, and any weapon containing poisonous or injurious gas."

Note: The "low end" indicates the bottom end of the standard range, and the "high end" category indicates the high end of the range. Determine the Seriousness Level and Offender Score; then find the low end of the range from the first grid and the high end from the second.

The crimes eligible for a deadly weapon increase and the specific range increases are as follows:

Crime	Deadly Weapon Increase
First Degree Kidnapping	24 months
First Degree Rape	24 months
First Degree Robbery	24 months
First Degree Burglary	18 months
Second Degree Assault	12 months
First Degree Escape	12 months
Second Degree Kidnapping	12 months
Second Degree Burglary	12 months
Drug Offense *	12 months
Theft of Livestock (First and Second Degree)	12 months

The deadly weapon increase also applies to anticipatory offenses (attempt, conspiracy, and solicitation to commit a crime).

Additional time for a deadly weapon increase is added to the entire presumptive sentence range after it has been calculated based on the particular Seriousness Level and Offender Score; (RCW 9.94A.370), and after the range adjustment for anticipatory offenses (if appropriate).

Drug Related Enhancements

Enhancements to the presumptive range are required for certain drug offenses which occur in correctional facilities or in a protected zone. These enhancements are as follows:

Correctional Facility: If the offender or an accomplice committed certain drug offenses while in a county jail or state correctional facility, the following times are added to the presumptive sentence range:

Crime	Enhancement
Manufacture, Deliver, Possess with Intent to Deliver Heroin or Cocaine	18 months

* Drug offense is defined as any felony violation of Chapter 69.50 RCW except Possession of a Controlled Substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or Forged Prescription for a Controlled Substance (RCW 69.50.403).

Manufacture, Deliver, Possess with Intent to Deliver Schedule I or II Narcotics (Except Heroin or Cocaine)	18 months
Selling for Profit (Controlled or Counterfeit) Any Controlled Substance	18 months
Manufacture, Deliver, Possess with Intent to Deliver Methamphetamine	15 months
Manufacture, Deliver, Possess with Intent to Deliver Schedule III-V Narcotics or Schedule I-V Nonnarcotics (Except Marijuana or Methamphetamines)	15 months
Manufacture, Deliver, Possess with Intent to Deliver Marijuana	15 months
Possession of Controlled Substance that is Either Heroin or Narcotics from Schedule I or II	12 months
Possession of Phencyclidine (PCP)	12 months
Possession of a Controlled Substance that is a Narcotic from Schedule III-V or Nonnarcotic from Schedule I-V (Except Phencyclidine)	12 months

Protected Zone: Twenty-four months are added to the presumptive sentence for any ranked offense involving a violation of Chapter 69.50 RCW if the offense also was a violation of RCW 69.50.435.

These protected zones are as follows:

- In a school;
- On a school bus;
- Within 1,000 feet of a school bus route stop;
- Within 1,000 feet of a school ground perimeter;
- In a public park;
- On a public transit vehicle;
- In a public transit stop shelter.

In addition to the sentence enhancement, the maximum imprisonment and fine for violations of RCW 69.50.401(a) are doubled if the illegal act occurred in one of these protected zones.

STEP 4 - DETERMINING THE SENTENCING OPTIONS

The sentencing options available to the court vary depending on the offender's criminal history and the crime(s) of conviction.

The court must impose a determinate sentence in every case. A determinate sentence is defined as "a sentence which states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution" (RCW 9.94A.030(14)). The only exception to this law is for sentences imposed under the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a)), which allows suspended sentences.

This section describes the available sentencing options. Table 4 (page I-30) identifies the crimes eligible for the First-Time Offender Waiver, Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative, enhancements, home detention, and community placement. The Offense Reference Sheets also indicate the sentencing options available for individual felonies.

Standard Sentence Range

The sentencing grid determines the standard sentence range for the most commonly charged felonies. RCW 9.94A.420 states that if the presumptive sentence duration given in the sentencing grid exceeds the statutory maximum sentence for the offense, the statutory maximum sentence shall be the presumptive sentence.

The ranges in the sentencing grid are expressed in terms of total confinement. A term of confinement of one year and one day (12+) is to be served in a state facility or institution. A term of one year or less is to be served in a county facility, unless, when combined with other terms, the total time to be served exceeds one year (RCW 9.94A.190). For some offenders, the court can convert total confinement sentences to partial confinement or community service (see the discussion of alternative conversions, page I-24). Offenders with a sentence greater than a year, who also have a sentence less than a year, are to serve the entire period of time in a state institution.

Unranked Crimes

For an offender convicted of a crime without an established Seriousness Level, no standard sentence range applies. In these cases, the court is to impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, legal financial obligations, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. Sentences involving greater than one year of confinement are exceptional sentences and must be justified in writing (RCW 9.94A.120(6)).

First-time Offender Waiver

The court has a statutory alternative to the standard range for certain first-time offenders (RCW 9.94A.120(5)). Offenders are eligible for the First-time Offender Waiver if they:

- Have not been convicted of a violent offense;
- Have not been convicted of Manufacture, Delivery, or Possession with Intent to Manufacture or Deliver a Schedule I or II Narcotic Drug;
- Have not been convicted of Selling for Profit any Controlled Substance or Counterfeit Substance
- Have not been convicted of a sex offense;
- Have not previously been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, another state, or foreign country;
- Have never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense (RCW 9.94A.030(20) and 9.94A.120(5)); and
- Have no juvenile adjudication for a felony offense committed on or after the date they turned 15, and no adjudications for a sex offense committed at any age.

For these offenders, the court is given broad discretion in setting the sentence. Choices available to the court include:

1. Imposing up to 90 days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county;
2. Requiring that the offender refrain from committing new offenses;
3. Requiring up to two years of community supervision which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:
 - Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or a Community Corrections Officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

- Report as directed to the court and a Community Corrections Officer; and/or
- Pay all court-ordered financial obligations, and/or perform some community service work.

The court's decision to impose or not impose the First-time Offender Waiver cannot be appealed by the prosecutor or defendant (RCW 9.94A.210(1)).

Sex Offender Sentencing Options

A special sentencing option allows community treatment of sex offenders on an outpatient basis. An inpatient sex offender treatment program is operated at Twin Rivers Corrections Center in Monroe. This program is not a sentencing option; offenders are admitted at the discretion of the Department of Corrections, rather than by court order.

Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative: The Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA) provides for a suspended sentence which can include a jail sentence of up to six months and required outpatient or inpatient treatment (RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a)). The 1990 Legislature significantly amended this statute to increase the accountability of the treatment provider to the court. In addition to procedural amendments, the legislature directed that examinations and treatment under SSOSA shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the Department of Health. To be eligible for this option, offenders must:

- Have been convicted of one of the following sex offenses: a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW, Incest (RCW 9A.64.020), Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes (RCW 9.68A.090) or an offense with a finding of sexual motivation. First Degree Rape, Second Degree Rape, and any serious violent offense with a sexual motivation finding are not eligible.
- Have had no prior convictions for sex offenses in this or any other state.

If those criteria are met, the court, on its own motion or on the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine if the defendant is amenable to treatment. The examination report must include the following:

- The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts;
- The defendant's offense history;

- An assessment of problems in addition to the alleged deviant behaviors;
- The defendant's social and employment situation; and
- Other evaluation measures used.

The examiner must assess the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

- A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;
- B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;
- C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;
- D) Anticipated length of treatment; and
- E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

A second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment can be ordered by the court, with the evaluator selected by the party making the motion. The defendant is to pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent, in which case the state pays the cost.

Once the examination report is received, the court determines whether the defendant and the community will benefit from use of this special sentencing alternative. The court also is to consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment sentence. If the court decides to impose a SSOSA sentence, the court then imposes a sentence within the standard sentence range. If the sentence is for less than eight years of confinement, the court may suspend execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater. This is the only sentencing option where suspended sentences are possible.

The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court can order outpatient or inpatient treatment; however, a community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has a special sex offender treatment program. The offender cannot change sex offender treatment providers without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court. In addition, the offender cannot change providers without court approval if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change.

As a condition of the SSOSA sentence, the court may order the defendant to spend up to six months in confinement (not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense). The court may also include crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender:

- Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- Report as directed to the court and a Community Corrections Officer;
- Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations, perform some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions, the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. The 60-day penalty for sentence violation is also an option to the court (see page I-24). All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

During the period of treatment, the sex offender therapist must submit quarterly reports on the offender's treatment progress to the court and parties. At a minimum, the reports shall reference the treatment plan and include the following: dates of attendance, offender's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the offender's relative progress in treatment, and any other material specified by the court at sentencing.

At the sentencing hearing, the court is to set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date of treatment completion. The sex offender therapist and community corrections officer are to submit written reports to the court and parties prior to this hearing. The reports will address the offender's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements and will contain recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions.

A second evaluation regarding the advisability of treatment termination can be requested by either party and ordered by the court. The cost shall be borne by the offender unless the court finds the person to be indigent in which case the state pays the cost.

As a result of the hearing, the court can modify the supervision conditions and shall either terminate treatment or extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community supervision.

Sex Offender Treatment in Prison: Sex offender treatment is available for some state prisoners. The statutory authorization and procedures vary depending on the date the offender committed the crime.

For offenders who committed crimes after July 1, 1990, the Department of Corrections has the discretion to place them in a treatment program within Twin Rivers Correctional Center. No authority exists for converting confinement time to community supervision for offenders who successfully complete the program.

For an offender who committed a felony sex offense between July 1, 1987, and July 1, 1990, and received a sentence of more than one year but less than six years of confinement, the court may request that the Department of Corrections evaluate the person's amenability to treatment, and the department may place them in a treatment program within a correctional facility. If the offender completes a program before the expiration of his sentence, the department may request that the balance of confinement be converted to community supervision (except for offenders convicted of First and Second Degree Rape). If the offender violates a condition of this community supervision, the court may impose a 60-day penalty or order the balance of community supervision to be served in prison.

Sex offenders who committed their crime prior to July 1, 1987, may, subject to available funds, request an evaluation by the Department of Corrections regarding their amenability to treatment. If such amenability is determined, the offender may request placement in a treatment program within the prison, subject again to available funds.

Alternative Conversions

The sentencing grid ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement (RCW 9.94A.370). For certain offenders, the court can convert terms of total confinement to partial confinement or community service. This provision allows courts to take advantage of available alternatives to confinement in cases where it is deemed appropriate. If the court does not use an alternative conversion for a nonviolent offender with a sentence range of one year or less, the reason why shall be stated on the Judgment and Sentence form (RCW 9.94A.380).

For eligible offenders (violent and nonviolent), one day of total confinement can be converted to one day of partial confinement. Nonviolent offenders are also eligible for conversion of total confinement to community service (one day of confinement equals 8 hours of service). This community service conversion, however, is limited to 30 days or 240 hours. If a community service conversion is ordered, and the determinate sentence is greater than 30 days, the balance of the term is to be served in total or partial confinement.

Partial confinement sentences may allow the offender to serve the sentence in work release, home detention, work crew, or a combination of work crew and home detention. If the offender violates the rules of the work release facility, work crew, or home detention program; or fails to remain employed or enrolled in school, the facility directors can have the offender transferred to the county detention facility. The offender can then request an administrative hearing. Pending the hearing or in the absence of a request for such a hearing, the offender shall serve the remainder of the term of confinement as total confinement (RCW 9.94A.180).

Work Crew

Work crew is a partial confinement option for offenders created by the 1991 Legislature. To be eligible for this program offenders must:

- Not be convicted of a sex offense (a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW, Incest (RCW 9A.64.020), or Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes (RCW 9.68A.090);
- Not be sentenced for a felony with a finding of sexual motivation (RCW 9.94A.127); and
- Have a sentence one year or less in length.

If the sentence is nine months or more, at least 30 days of total confinement must be served before being eligible for work crew. Work crew may be simultaneously imposed with electronic home detention. Work crew hours served can include work on civic improvement tasks, substance abuse counseling, job skills training, and a maximum of 24 hours per week at approved, verified work.

To be eligible to receive credit for approved, verified work, offenders must first successfully complete four weeks work crew, each week comprised of 35 hours of service. Work crew projects specified by the work crew supervisor must be completed in coordination with approved, verified work. Unless exempted by the court, offenders using approved, verified employment as part of their work crew hours must pay a monthly supervision assessment.

Home Detention

Home detention is a partial confinement program where the offender is confined to a private residence and subject to electronic surveillance. Because partial confinement programs are limited to sentences of one year or less, home detention is not an option for offenders with prison sentences.

Convictions for the following offenses prohibit use of this program: violent offense, sex offense, drug offense, First or Second Degree Reckless Burning, Third Degree Assault, Unlawful Imprisonment, and Harassment.

Home detention may be imposed for offenders convicted of Possession of a Controlled Substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or Forged Prescription for a Controlled Substance (RCW 69.50.403) providing the offender is monitored for drug use.

Offenders convicted of Second Degree or Residential Burglary must meet the following eligibility conditions: (a) successfully completing twenty-one days in a work release program; (b) having no convictions for Second Degree or Residential Burglary during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for burglary; (c) having no convictions for a violent felony offense during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for a violent felony offense; (d) having no prior charges of escape; and (e) fulfilling the other conditions of the home detention program. Participation in this program is conditioned upon: (a) employment or school attendance; (b) program rules adherence; and (c) compliance with court-ordered legal financial obligations, (RCW 9.94A.030(36)).

Home detention can also be ordered for offenders whose medical or health-related conditions, concerns, or treatment would be better addressed under the home detention program or where the health and welfare of the offender, other inmates, or staff would be jeopardized by the offender's incarceration. Participation in the home detention program for medical or health-related reasons is conditioned on the offender abiding by the rules of the home detention program and complying with court-ordered legal financial obligations.

Community Supervision

For all sentences of one year or less, including those with alternative conversions, the court may impose up to one year of community supervision to ensure that the terms of the sentence are met. An offender shall be on community supervision as of the date of sentencing. However, during any time the offender has absented him or herself from supervision without prior approval or during a period of confinement, the period of supervision shall toll (RCW 9.94A.170).

Community supervision for up to two years can be ordered with First-time Offender Waiver sentences, and can be ordered for outpatient sex offender sentences (Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative) for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater. For consecutive sentences, community supervision is limited to 24 months (RCW 9.94A.400(5)).

Community supervision under the First-time Offender Waiver and Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative can include rehabilitative conditions. For other supervision sentences, the conditions can include crime-related prohibitions. Crime-related prohibition means "an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstance of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitate programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct." (RCW 9.94A.030(11)).

If the court decides that an offender's crime was caused by drug or alcohol use, a prohibition against such use can be imposed during community supervision, with regular monitoring by urinalysis or breathalyzer tests.

Community Placement

"Community placement" is the umbrella term for post-prison supervision of sex offenders, drug offenders, and certain other non-property offenders, and includes two programs.

- Community custody is for inmates who earn "good time" while in prison. These offenders are transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release time now served in the community. They are subject to the same controls placed on prison inmates. Violations of sentence conditions are reviewed at an inmate disciplinary hearing conducted by the Department of Corrections. Sanctions may include transfer to a more restrictive confinement level to serve the remaining portion of the original sentence. Any detention ordered is served in a Department of Corrections work release or prison facility.
- Post-release supervision is for inmates who serve all their original sentence in confinement. If they violate sentence conditions, these offenders are entitled to a court hearing. Sanctions may include up to 60 days for each violation, and detention time is served in a county jail.

Unless the conditions are waived by the court, an offender on community placement must:

- Report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;
- Work at Department of Corrections' approved education, employment, and/or community service;
- Not consume controlled substances that are not legally prescribed;
- Not possess controlled substances while on community custody;
- Not own, use or possess firearms or ammunition; and
- Pay supervision fees as determined by the Department of Corrections.

In addition to the above, the court may impose the following special conditions:

- Remain within or outside of specified geographical boundaries;
- Have no direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime;
- Have no direct or indirect contact with a specified class of individuals (must be specified);
- Participate in crime-related treatment or counseling services;
- Consume no alcohol;
- Sex offenders must get prior approval for living arrangements from the Department of Corrections; or
- Comply with crime-related prohibitions.

Conditions of community placement may be changed prior to transfer or during supervision, but they cannot be made more restrictive. If an offender commits a new felony while on community placement, an additional point is added to his or her Offender Score, thus increasing the sentencing range for the new felony.

Community placement begins upon completion of the confinement term or when the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release. If the offender is sentenced to the statutory maximum period of confinement, then the community placement portion of the sentence consists entirely of the community custody to which the offender may become eligible. Any period of community custody actually served is to be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. Community supervision for twelve months is a mandatory sentence condition for offenders sentenced to prison for the following offenses committed on or after July 1, 1988:

- Sex offense (must be committed before July 1, 1990);
- Serious violent offense (must be committed before July 1 1990);

- Second Degree Assault;
- Crime against a person with a deadly weapon finding under RCW 9.94A.125 (A list of "crimes against a person" for the deadly weapon category can be found in RCW 9.94A.310. See Page II-57); or
- Any felony offense under Chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW.

There is a mandatory two year community placement sentence in addition to other terms of sentence for the following offenses if they were committed after June 30, 1990:

- Sex offense; or
- Serious violent offense.

Exceptional Sentences

The standard sentence range is presumed to be appropriate for the typical felony case. However, the law provides that in exceptional cases, the court has the discretion to depart from the standard sentence range and impose an exceptional sentence. RCW 9.94A.120(2) states the court "may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence."

An exceptional sentence must be a determinate sentence and cannot exceed the statutory maximum for the crime. In the case of the four crimes with statutory mandatory minimum sentences (Aggravated First Degree Murder, First Degree Murder, First Degree Assault and First Degree Rape), a departure sentence cannot go below these minimum terms of confinement (RCW 10.95.030 and RCW 9.94A.120(4)).

If the court imposes a sentence outside a standard range, it must set forth the reasons for its decision in written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law (RCW 9.94A.120(3)). These procedures must also be followed if the court departs from the consecutive/concurrent policy in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2). Any departures can be appealed to the Court of Appeals by the defendant or the prosecutor.

The statute provides a list of illustrative factors the court may consider in deciding whether to impose an exceptional sentence. These mitigating and aggravating circumstances for exceptional sentences are provided as examples to the court and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for departures.

1. Mitigating Circumstances for Exceptional Sentences:

- a. To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.
- b. Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.
- c. The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.
- d. The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

- e. The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).
- f. The offense was principally accomplished by another person, and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.
- g. The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.
- h. The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense, and the offense is a response to that abuse.

2. Aggravating Circumstances for Exceptional Sentences:

- a. The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.
- b. The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.
- c. The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:
 - i. The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;
 - ii. The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;
 - iii. The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;
 - iv. The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

- d. The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, Chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition. The presence of any of the following may identify an offense as a major VUCSA offense:
- i. The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or
 - ii. The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or
 - iii. The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or
 - iv. The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or
 - v. The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or
 - vi. The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).
- e. The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.127.
- f. The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of 18 years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time.
- g. The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Restitution

The court shall order restitution whenever a felony results in injury to person or damage or property loss. If restitution is not ordered, the court is to indicate the extraordinary reasons on the record (RCW 9.94A.120(15)).

Restitution can also be ordered to pay for an injury, loss or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that he or she pay restitution for an offense(s) not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

Restitution is based on three factors:

- Easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property;
- Actual expenses incurred in treatment for injury to persons; and
- Lost wages resulting from injury.

Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, and other intangible losses. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime.

Restitution is to be determined at the sentencing hearing or within 60 days. As part of the sentence, the court must set the terms and conditions under which the defendant shall make restitution. It is required that the court be specific about the payment schedule for restitution, so that these sentence conditions can be appropriately monitored by the Community Corrections Officer.

The offender's compliance with the restitution requirement can be supervised for ten years after the date of sentence or release from confinement. The restitution portion of the sentence may be modified as to amount, terms, and conditions during this period regardless of the community supervision term and the statutory maximum of the crime.

Restitution for victims is the first priority for payment by an offender.

Cases Involving Fraud or Deceptive Practice

If an offender or organization is found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice, the court may require that notice be given to the class of persons or sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense. The notice can be accomplished by mail, by advertising through designated media, or by other appropriate means (RCW 9.94A.142(3)).

Fines

On all sentences for felony offenses, the court may impose fines according to the following ranges (RCW 9.94A.386):

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000
Class C felonies	$0 - 10,000

Unless the court finds the offender to be indigent, every person convicted of certain VUCSA violations (RCW 69.50.401, 69.50.402, 69.50.403, 69.50.406, 69.50.407, 69.50.410, 69.50.415) shall be fined one thousand dollars in addition to any other fine or penalty imposed. This fine increases to $2,000 if the violation is a second or subsequent violation of one of the laws specified.

Other Legal Financial Obligations

The Sentencing Reform Act allows the court to order several additional monetary obligations. These include:

- Court costs, including reimbursement for extradition costs (RCW 9.94A.030(10));
- Defense attorney's fees and defense costs (RCW 9.94A.030(10));
- Contributions to a county or interlocal drug fund (RCW 9.94A.030(10));
- Crime victims' compensation assessment (RCW 7.68.035);
- Recoupment to the victim for the cost of counseling as a result of the offender's crime, in cases where the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative is exercised (RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a)(ii)(B)); and
- Payment for the cost of incarceration, at the rate of fifty dollars per day.

All such monetary obligations, except probationer assessments, shall be monitored by the Department of Corrections for up to ten years after the last date of release from confinement or the date the sentence was entered (RCW 9.94A.120(10)).

The court must designate the total amount of a legal financial obligation, distinguishing the separate assessment for restitution, costs, fines, and other assessment. This designation must appear on the Judgment and Sentence form, or on a subsequent order to pay, and include the required schedule for monthly payment. If the court fails to set the monthly payment amount the department shall set the amount.

In order to assist the court in setting the monthly payment sum, the offender must truthfully report to the Department of Corrections regarding earnings, property, and assets, and supply requested documentation.

The department may recommend to the court modifications in the payment schedule if the offender's financial circumstances change during the period of supervision. In cases where the department set the monthly assessment amount, the department may modify the monthly assessment without consulting the court.

Civil action for collection of unpaid legal financial obligations can be initiated by the Department of Corrections or any obligee. The law describes the wage assignment process. (See RCW 9.94A.145 and 9.94A.2001.)

Contact With Individuals

The court can prohibit the offender from having contact with specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the community supervision or community placement term. The order prohibiting contact must relate directly to the circumstances of the crime of conviction (RCW 9.94A.120(17)).

Consecutive/Concurrent Sentences

RCW 9.94A.400 identifies several rules regarding consecutive/concurrent sentences. Generally, sentences for multiple offenses set at one sentencing hearing are served concurrently unless there are two or more separate serious violent offenses. In those cases, the sentences are served consecutively. In some cases, the decision to run the sentences consecutively or concurrently is discretionary, but in others a departure from the policy requires an exceptional sentence. The specific rules are as follows:

Sentencing Persons Convicted of Multiple Offenses: Except for convictions of two or more separate serious violent offenses, all sentences for multiple offenses are served concurrently (RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a)). In the case of two or more serious violent offenses arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentences for these serious violent offenses are served consecutively to each other and concurrently with any other sentences imposed for current offenses (RCW 9.94A.400(1)(b)). Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the Offender Score is being computed are deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

A departure from this rule requires an exceptional sentence (RCW 9.94A.120(15)).

Felony Committed While Offender is Under Sentence for Another Felony: Whenever the current offense was committed while the offender was under sentence for a previous felony and the offender is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms (RCW 9.94A.400(2)).

A departure from this rule requires an exceptional sentence (RCW 9.94A.120(15)).

Felonies Committed While Offender was not Under Sentence for Another Felony: Subject to the above policies, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrent with felony sentences previously imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively (RCW 9.94A.400(3)). This rule applies when offenders have been charged in multiple informations or have multiple convictions from different jurisdictions.

Probation Revocation: Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or RCW 9.92.060, or both, has a probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, this sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently (RCW 9.94A.400(4)). This rule applies when offenders with a pre-SRA case have their probation revoked and are also sentenced on a conviction for a crime committed after June 30, 1984.

Serving Total Confinement with Consecutive Sentences: In the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any periods of partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or condition of a sentence (RCW 9.94A.400(5)). This rule applies to offenders who have not completed their sentence requirements from a previous conviction and are sentenced to total confinement on a new offense.

STEP 5 - REVIEW OF SENTENCES

A sentence within the standard range cannot be appealed (RCW 9.94A.210). However, a sentence outside the standard range is subject to appeal by the defendant or the prosecutor. To reverse a sentence which is outside the sentence range, the Court of Appeals must find that:

- (a) the reasons supplied by the sentencing judge were not supported by the record, or they do not justify a sentence outside the range; or
- (b) the sentence imposed was clearly excessive or clearly too lenient.

The Department of Corrections may request a review of a sentence committing an offender to the custody or jurisdiction of the department. This review must be limited to errors of law, and must be filed with the Court of Appeals within ninety days of knowing about the sentence. The department must certify that all reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute at the Superior Court level have been exhausted.

STEP 6 - PENALTY AND MODIFICATION HEARING

If an offender violates any sentence condition or requirement, the court may modify its judgment and sentence according to the rules in RCW 9.94A.200. The court, upon motion of the state or upon its own motion, must first require the offender to show cause why he or she shall not be punished for the noncompliance. A summons or arrest warrant can be issued by the court for the offender's appearance.

If the court finds that a violation of sentence conditions or requirements has occurred, it may order the offender confined for a period not to exceed 60 days for each violation. The court may (i) convert a partial confinement term to total confinement; (ii) convert community service to total or partial confinement; or (iii) convert monetary obligations (except restitution and the crime victim penalty assessment) to community service hours by calculating the obligation into hours using the state minimum wage as a calculation basis.

Any time served in confinement awaiting the hearing shall be credited against any confinement order. If the court finds the violation was not willful, the court may modify its previous order regarding payment of legal financial obligations and community service obligations. In all cases, escape charges can also be filed if appropriate.

STEP 7 - DISCHARGE AND VACATION OF CONVICTION RECORD

Discharge

When an offender completes his or her sentence requirements, the Department of Corrections shall notify the sentencing court in accordance with RCW 9.94A.220. The court then discharges the offender and provides him or her with a certificate of discharge. This certificate restores all civil rights lost upon conviction. It is not, however, based on a finding of rehabilitation.

Following discharge, the offender's prior record can be used to determine the sentence for later offenses and also used in later criminal prosecution as an element of an offense or for impeachment purposes.

Vacation of Conviction Record

Every offender discharged under the above provision may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the conviction record as provided in RCW 9.94A.230. The offender's record cannot be cleared if:

- Any criminal charges are pending against the offender in any court in this state, another state, or federal court;
- The offense was a violent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(33));
- The offense was a crime against persons (as defined in RCW 43.43.830);
- The offender has been convicted of a new crime in this state, another state, or federal court since the date of the offender's discharge;
- The offense was a Class B felony, and less than ten years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged; and
- The offense was a Class C felony, and less than five years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged.

If the offender meets these tests, the court can clear the record of conviction by:

- Permitting the offender to withdraw his/her guilty plea and to enter a plea of not guilty; or
- Setting aside the guilty verdict, if the offender was convicted after a plea of not guilty; and
- Dismissing the information or indictment against the offender.

Once the court vacates a record of conviction, the offender's conviction shall not be included in the offender's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction and the offender shall be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offenses. For all purposes, including responding to questions on employment applications, an offender whose record of conviction has been vacated may state that he or she has never been convicted of that crime. However, a vacated conviction record may be used as an element of a crime in a later criminal prosecution for the limited number of offenses whose classification as a felony requires proof of a prior conviction (e.g., Communication with a Minor for Immoral Purposes).

The sentencing guidelines allow automatic "washout" of prior convictions which meet the requirements of vacation of conviction. This policy allows offenders, who do not formally apply to the court, to have eligible offenses excluded from their criminal history in subsequent convictions. (See page I-9 for further discussion of this policy.)

RCW 9.94A.010 PURPOSE.

The purpose of this chapter is to make the criminal justice system accountable to the public by developing a system for the sentencing of felony offenders which structures, but does not eliminate, discretionary decisions affecting sentences, and to add a new chapter to Title 9 RCW designed to:

- (1) Ensure that the punishment for a criminal offense is proportionate to the seriousness of the offense and the offender's criminal history;
- (2) Promote respect for the law by providing punishment which is just;
- (3) Be commensurate with the punishment imposed on others committing similar offenses;
- (4) Protect the public;
- (5) Offer the offender an opportunity to improve him or herself; and
- (6) Make frugal use of the state's resources.

Comment

In 1983, the legislature considered enumerating specific factors which could not be considered in sentencing the offender, including race, creed, and gender. However, the legislature decided that to list such factors could narrow the scope of their intent, which was to prohibit discrimination as to any element that does not relate to the crime or the previous record of the defendant. For this reason, the statute requires that the sentencing guidelines and prosecuting standards be applied equally "without discrimination."

RCW 9.94A.020 SHORT TITLE.

This chapter may be known and cited as the sentencing reform act of 1981.

RCW 9.94A.030 DEFINITIONS.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Collect," or any derivative thereof, "collect and remit," or "collect and deliver," when used with reference to the department of corrections, means that the department is responsible for monitoring and enforcing the offender's sentence with regard to the legal financial obligation, receiving payment thereof from the offender, and, consistent with current law, delivering daily the entire payment to the superior court clerk without depositing it in a departmental account.

(2) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(3) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(4) "Community custody" means that portion of an inmate's sentence of confinement in lieu of earned early release time served in the community subject to controls placed on the inmate's movement and activities by the department of corrections.

(5) "Community placement" means that period during which the offender is subject to the conditions of community custody and/or postrelease supervision, which begins either upon completion of the term of confinement (postrelease supervision) or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release. Community placement may consist of entirely community custody, entirely postrelease supervision, or a combination of the two.

(6) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(7) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed by a court pursuant to this chapter or RCW 46.61.524. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5). For purposes of the interstate compact for out-of-state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(8) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(9) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(10) "Court-ordered legal financial obligation" means a sum of money that is ordered by a superior court of the state of Washington for legal financial obligations which may include restitution to the victim, statutorily imposed crime victims' compensation fees as assessed pursuant to RCW 7.68.035, court costs, county or inter-local drug funds, court-appointed attorneys' fees, and costs of defense, fines, and any other financial obligation that is assessed to the offender as a result of a felony conviction.

(11) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(12) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" shall always include juvenile convictions for sex offenses and shall also include a defendant's other prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony or a serious traffic offense and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies or serious traffic offenses, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(13) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(14) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a legal financial obligation. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(15) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld. For the purposes of this definition, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonuses, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy a court-ordered legal financial obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

(16) "Drug offense" means:

(a) Any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403);

(b) Any offense defined as a felony under federal law that relates to the possession, manufacture, distribution, or transportation of a controlled substance; or

(c) Any out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a drug offense under (a) of this subsection.

(17) "Escape" means:

(a) Escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), willful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), willful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070), or willful failure to comply with any limitations on the inmate's movements while in community custody (RCW 72.09.310); or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as an escape under (a) of this subsection.

(18) "Felony traffic offense" means:

(a) Vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), eluding a police officer (RCW 46.61.024), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)); or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a felony traffic offense under (a) of this subsection.

(19) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

(20) (a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony (i) not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, or (ii) that is not the manufacture, delivery, or possession with intent to manufacture or deliver a controlled substance classified in schedule I or II that is a narcotic drug or the selling for profit any controlled substance or counterfeit substance classified in schedule I, RCW 69.50.204, except leaves and flowering tops of marihuana, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction except for adjudications of sex offenses.

(21) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(22) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

(23) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, or, if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in an approved residence, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community. Partial confinement includes work release, home detention, work crew, and a combination of work crew and home detention as defined in this section.

(24) "Postrelease supervision" is that portion of an offender's community placement that is not community custody.

(25) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

(26) "Serious traffic offense" means:

(a) Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)); or

(b) Any federal, out-of-state, county, or municipal conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be classified as a serious traffic offense under (a) of this subsection.

(27) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means:

(a) Murder in the first degree, homicide by abuse, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies; or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a serious violent offense under (a) of this subsection.

(28) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

(29) "Sex offense" means:

(a) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes;

(b) A felony with a finding of sexual motivation under RCW 9.94A.127.

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a sex offense under (a) of this subsection.

(30) "Sexual motivation" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of his or her sexual gratification.

(31) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

(32) "Victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

(33) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular assault, and vehicular homicide, when proximately caused by the driving of any vehicle by any person while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug as defined by RCW 46.61.502, or by the operation of any vehicle in a reckless manner;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in (a) of this subsection; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(34) "Work crew" means a program of partial confinement consisting of civic improvement tasks for the benefit of the community of not less than thirty-five hours per week that complies RCW 9.94A.135. The civic improvement tasks shall be performed on public property or on private property owned or operated by nonprofit entities, except that, for emergency purposes only, work crews may perform snow removal on any private property. The civic improvement tasks shall have minimal negative impact on existing private industries or the labor force in the labor force in the county where the service or labor is performed. The civic improvement tasks shall not affect employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities contracted through sheltered workshops as defined in RCW 82.04.385. Only those offenders sentenced to a facility operated or utilized under contract by a county are eligible to participate on a work crew. Offenders sentenced for a sex offense as defined in subsection (29) of this section are not eligible for the work crew program.

(35) "Work release" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders who are employed or engaged as a student in a regular course of study at school. Participation in work release shall be conditioned upon the offender attending work or school at regularly defined hours and abiding by the rules of the work release facility.

(36) "Home detention" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders wherein the offender is confined in a private residence subject to electronic surveillance. Home detention may not be imposed for offenders convicted of a violent offense, any sex offense, any drug offense, reckless burning in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.48.040 or 9A.48.050, assault in the third degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.031, unlawful imprisonment as defined in RCW 9A.40.040, or harassment as defined in RCW 9A.46.020. Home detention may be imposed for offenders convicted of possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403) if the offender fulfills the participation conditions set forth in this subsection and is monitored for drug use by treatment alternatives to street crime (TASC) or a comparable court or agency-referred program. (a) Home detention may be imposed for offenders convicted of burglary in the second degree as defined in RCW 9A.52.030 or residential burglary conditioned upon the offender: (i) Successfully completing twenty-one days in a work release program, (ii) having no convictions for burglary in the second degree or residential burglary during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for burglary or residential burglary, (iii) having no convictions for a violent felony offense during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for a violent felony offense, (iv) having no prior charges of escape, and (v) fulfilling the other conditions of the home detention program. (b) Participation in a home detention program shall be conditioned upon: (i) The offender obtaining or maintaining current employment or attending a regular course of school study at regularly defined hours, or the offender performing parental duties to offspring or minors normally in the custody of the offender, (ii) abiding by the rules of the home detention program, and (iii) compliance with court-ordered legal financial obligations. The home detention program may also be made available to offenders whose charges and convictions do not otherwise disqualify them if medical or health-related conditions, concerns or treatment would be better addressed under the home detention program, or where the health and welfare of the offender, other inmates, or staff would be jeopardized by the offender's incarceration. Participation in the home detention program for medical or health-related reasons is conditioned on the offender abiding by the rules of the home detention program and complying with court-ordered restitution.

The 1986 Amendments:

The 1986 Legislature made several changes in this section (Chapter 257, Laws of 1986). Some changes were intended to resolve ambiguities and inconsistencies which were discovered as the law was put into practice; others merely improved the organization of this chapter. The following explains the Commission's rationale for recommending these changes to the legislature.

The definition of "conviction" has been clarified to include a verdict of guilty, finding of guilty, or an acceptance of a plea of guilty. In determining if a prior conviction existed for the purpose of calculating the offender score, it was unclear if a crime for which a plea of guilty had been entered but a sentencing had not taken place qualified as a "prior conviction." The amendment states that a finding of guilt determined by a jury or a judge (upon entry of a plea or otherwise) is a conviction for the purpose of the SRA.

To reflect the serious nature of Class A felonies, the term "criminal history" was amended so that prior juvenile Class A felonies do not "wash out" when the defendant becomes 23 years of age. See RCW 9.94A.360(4).

The term "drug offense" has been added to this section. Certain types of drug offenses warrant the addition of 12 months to the standard range if a deadly weapon allegation is proven. The law previously provided that this penalty could be imposed for "Delivery or Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver." No RCWs were cited, and there was some confusion if the category excluded crimes such as Distribution to Persons under 18, and Selling for a Profit. The new definition clarifies which drug crimes can receive this penalty. Simple possession, forged prescriptions, and violations of the Legend Drug Act are not included in the definition.

In the offender score matrices (Chapter 157--1988 Session Laws repealed RCW 9.94A.330 which contained the offender score matrices) and in RCW 9.94A.360, the term "escape" was used. The definition previously contained in RCW 9.94A.310 is moved to the definition section.

The term "felony traffic offense" was previously defined at the bottom of the offender score matrices in RCW 9.94A.330 (Chapter 157--1988 Session Laws repealed RCW 9.94A.330). This definition has been changed to include Vehicular Homicide, to solve an oversight, and to exclude Attempting to Elude a Police Officer. (In 1987, Attempting to Elude a Police Officer was again added to the definition.)

The term "first-time offender" confused practitioners and raised questions concerning whether prior juvenile convictions precluded an adult offender from being sentenced as a "first-time offender." Changes in the definition make it clear that a juvenile adjudication committed at the age of 15 years or after disqualifies the offender from being sentenced under the First-time Offender Waiver. The exclusion of sex offenders from this option was previously cited in RCW 9.94A.120(5) and was moved to this section to improve clarity.

The definition of a "nonviolent offense" was added because it is a term used frequently in the act.

The term "serious traffic offense" is added to this section. It previously appeared at the bottom of the matrices in RCW 9.94A.330 (Chapter 157--1988 Session Laws repealed RCW 9.94A.330). The definition clarifies the previously used term of "Hit-and-Run" by labeling the offense as "Hit-and-Run An Attended Vehicle" (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

The term "serious violent offense" is included in this section. It previously appeared at the bottom of the matrices in RCW 9.94A.330 (Chapter 157--1988 Session Laws repealed RCW 9.94A.330). The term has been expanded to include attempts, solicitations and conspiracies to commit any of the felonies listed in the definition. Previously, the law was not clear in three areas: 1) if anticipatory crimes were included in this definition, 2) if anticipatory crimes are eligible for a deadly weapon enhancement, and 3) how anticipatory crimes are to be scored in the offender score. The statutes in this section and in RCW 9.94A.310 and 9.94A.330 (Chapter 157--1988 Session Laws repealed RCW 9.94A.330) make clear that anticipatory offenses are considered the same as the completed crime in determining whether the crime is a serious violent offense, warrants a longer sentence for a deadly weapon allegation, or increases the offender score.

The term "sex offense" has been added to this section to clarify which offenses qualify for the sex offender sentencing options and are precluded from the First-time Offender Waiver. Anticipatory crimes are included within the definition.

The crime of Vehicular Assault has been added to the list of crimes within the definition of a "violent offense." The commission decided that this crime involves basically the same offender behavior as Vehicular Homicide, a violent offense, and therefore the crime needed to be added to this category.

The 1987 Amendments:

The 1987 Legislature made several changes to this section. Most of the changes were intended to clarify the law. One was a substantive change to the first-time offender waiver. Another was a change involving Vehicular Homicide.

To clarify the law, the legislature included federal and out-of-state convictions in the definition of specific types of crimes. Work release was defined as a program of partial confinement, with the stipulation the offender must attend work or school and follow the facility's rules.

Eluding a Police Officer was included in the definition of felony traffic offense in 1984, then removed in 1986. The 1987 amendments again defined this crime as a felony traffic offense.

The first-time offender definition was amended to exclude use of the waiver for persons convicted of Manufacture, Deliver, or Possess With Intent to Manufacture or Deliver Controlled Substances Classified as Schedule I or II Narcotics.

In order to make a certain type of Vehicular Homicide offenders eligible for the First-time Offender Waiver, the definition of violent offenses was amended to include Vehicular Homicide only when caused by driving under the influence or by driving recklessly. Vehicular Homicide is not classified as a violent offense if caused by disregard for the safety of others.

The new crime, Homicide by Abuse, was added to the definition of serious violent offenses.

The 1988 Amendments:

The 1988 Legislature added several definitions related to the community placement program following release from prison. These definitions included community custody, community placement, and postrelease supervision. The definition of escape was amended to include failure to comply with movement limitations while on community custody.

The Commission recommended the definition of juvenile criminal history (RCW 9.94A.030(12)(b)) be amended to include serious traffic offenses. The offender scoring rules (RCW 9.94A.360) include serious traffic offenses when determining the sentence range for felony traffic offenses, therefore this section was changed to be consistent.

The 1988 Legislature enacted a provision allowing home detention for certain offenders. The definition of partial confinement was amended to reference this form of confinement and a definition of home detention was added. The violent offense definition (RCW 9.94A.030(33)) was amended to include the newly created crime of First Degree Child Molestation.

The 1989 Amendments:

The 1989 Legislature amended the definition of home detention to change eligibility for the program.

The 1990 Amendments:

The 1989 Legislature passed a legal financial obligation bill (Chapter 252, Laws of 1989) with a delayed implementation date of July 1, 1990. This bill defined terms, and set procedures, for collecting legal financial obligations.

The 1990 Legislature amended the definition of criminal history so juvenile convictions for sex offenses are always included in criminal history despite the offender's age or the class of the crime. The definition of sex offense was amended to include crimes committed with sexual motivation; a definition of this term was also added.

The definition of victim was amended to include persons who sustained emotional or psychological injury.

First Degree Child Molestation and Second Degree Rape were deleted from the violent offense definition because they were raised from Class B to Class A offenses (Chapter 3, Laws of 1990). All Class A offenses are defined as violent crimes.

The definition of home detention was amended to include offenders convicted of Residential Burglary, provided they have limited criminal history and meet certain conditions.

RCW 9.94A.040 SENTENCING GUIDELINES COMMISSION--ESTABLISHED --POWERS AND DUTIES.

- (1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.
- (2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:
 - (a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;
 - (b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and
 - (c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.
- (3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.
- (4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:
 - (a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum;

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) The maximum term of confinement in a range may not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

(7) The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

(8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

(9) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.05 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

RCW 9.94A.050 SENTENCING GUIDELINES COMMISSION--RESEARCH STAFF--DATA, INFORMATION, ASSISTANCE--BYLAWS--SALARY OF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.

The commission shall appoint a research staff of sufficient size and with sufficient resources to accomplish its duties. The commission may request from the office of financial management, the board of prison terms and paroles, administrator for the courts, the department of corrections, and the department of social and health services such data, information, and data processing assistance as it may need to accomplish its duties, and such services shall be provided without cost to the commission. The commission shall adopt its own bylaws.

The salary for a full-time executive officer, if any, shall be fixed by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.03.040.

RCW 9.94A.060 SENTENCING GUIDELINES COMMISSION--MEMBERSHIP
--APPOINTMENTS--TERMS OF OFFICE--EXPENSES AND COMPENSATION.

(1) The commission consists of fifteen voting members, one of whom the governor shall designate as chairperson. With the exception of ex officio voting members, the voting members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(2) The voting membership consists of the following:

(a) The head of the state agency having general responsibility for adult correction programs, as an ex officio member;

(b) The director of financial management, as an ex officio member;

(c) Until July 1, 1992, the chair of the indeterminate sentencing review board, as an ex officio member, and thereafter the chair of the clemency and pardons board, as an ex officio member;

(d) Two prosecuting attorneys;

(e) Two attorneys with particular expertise in defense work;

(f) Four persons who are superior court judges;

(g) One person who is the chief law enforcement officer of a county or city;

(h) Three members of the public who are not and have never been prosecutors, attorneys, judges, or law enforcement officers.

In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of Washington prosecutors in respect to the prosecuting attorney members, of the Washington state bar association in respect to the attorney members, of the association of superior court judges in respect to the members who are judges, and of the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs in respect to the member who is a law enforcement officer.

(3) All voting members of the commission, except ex officio voting members, shall serve terms of three years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed. However, the governor shall stagger the terms by appointing four of the initial members for terms of one year, four for terms of two years, and four for terms of three years.

(4) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint two nonvoting members to the commission, one from each of the two largest caucuses in each house. The members so appointed shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

(5) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed by their respective houses as provided under RCW 44.04.120, as now existing or hereafter amended. Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250.

RCW 9.94A.070 STANDARD SENTENCE RANGES--REVISIONS OR MODIFICATIONS--SUBMISSION TO LEGISLATURE.

Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years.

RCW 9.94A.080 PLEA AGREEMENTS--DISCUSSIONS--CONTENTS OF AGREEMENTS.

The prosecutor and the attorney for the defendant, or the defendant when acting pro se, may engage in discussions with a view toward reaching an agreement that, upon the entering of a plea to a charged offense or to a lesser or related offense, the prosecutor will do any of the following:

- (1) Move for dismissal of other charges or counts;
- (2) Recommend a particular sentence within the sentence range applicable to the offense or offenses to which the offender pled guilty;
- (3) Recommend a particular sentence outside of the sentence range;
- (4) Agree to file a particular charge or count;
- (5) Agree not to file other charges or counts; or
- (6) Make any other promise to the defendant, except that in no instance may the prosecutor agree not to allege prior convictions.

The court shall not participate in any discussions under this section.

Comment

Pursuant to subsection (6), agreements may be reached regarding the filing or dismissal of deadly weapon allegations, the amount of restitution to be paid, whether an alternative conversion from total confinement to community service will be recommended, and whether confinement shall be total or partial. These examples are not exclusive, and subsection (6) was designed to allow agreements appropriate to the specific facts of individual cases which are permitted under the act. See RCW 9.94A.450, the Recommended Prosecuting Standards for Charging and Plea Dispositions.

The requirement that in no instance may the prosecutor agree not to allege prior convictions does not apply to situations in which the conviction is constitutionally invalid on its face. Similarly, it need not be alleged if the prior conviction has been previously determined through a personal restraint petition (or equivalent process) to have been unconstitutionally obtained. See State vs. Ammons, 105 Wn.2d 175, 187 (1986).

RCW 9.94A.090 PLEA AGREEMENTS--STATEMENT TO COURT AS TO NATURE AND REASONS FOR AGREEMENT--COURT APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL--SENTENCING JUDGE NOT BOUND.

(1) If a plea agreement has been reached by the prosecutor and the defendant pursuant to RCW 9.94A.080, they shall at the time of the defendant's plea state to the court, on the record, the nature of the agreement and the reasons for the agreement. The court, at the time of the plea, shall determine if the agreement is consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards. If the court determines it is not consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards, the court shall, on the record, inform the defendant and the prosecutor that they are not bound by the agreement and that the defendant may withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty, if one has been made, and enter a plea of not guilty.

(2) The sentencing judge is not bound by any recommendations contained in an allowed plea agreement and the defendant shall be so informed at the time of plea.

Comment

Subsection (1) gives the judge hearing a defendant's plea of guilty the authority to void the plea agreement upon which it is based if it is not consistent with the interests of justice and the prosecuting standards. This includes the authority to deny an amendment of the information. CrR2.1(d).

A sentencing judge is not bound by the recommendations of any party, even if that judge also accepted the defendant's plea of guilty. This is consistent with Washington law preceding implementation of the Sentencing Reform Act.

RCW 9.94A.100 PLEA AGREEMENTS--CRIMINAL HISTORY.

The prosecuting attorney and the defendant shall each provide the court with their understanding of what the defendant's criminal history is prior to a plea of guilty pursuant to a plea agreement. All disputed issues as to criminal history shall be decided at the sentencing hearing.

Comment

This section has been held not to violate a defendant's right to self-incrimination. State vs. Ammons, 105 Wn.2d 175, 183-184 (1986).

RCW 9.94A.110 SENTENCING HEARING--TIME PERIOD FOR HOLDING--PRESENTENCE REPORTS--VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENT AND CRIMINAL HISTORY--ARGUMENTS--RECORD.

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall order the department to complete a presentence report before imposing a sentence upon a defendant who has been convicted of a felony sexual offense. The department of corrections shall give priority to presentence investigations for sexual offenders. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

Comment

This section is procedurally implemented through CrR 7.1. Relevant information for purposes of sentencing is to be submitted through written presentence reports. Information set forth in the presentence reports of the prosecuting attorney and the Department of Corrections will be considered admitted, unless specifically controverted by the defendant. State vs. Ammons, 105 Wn.2d 175, 184 (1986).

A comprehensive discussion regarding the determination of a defendant's criminal history at the sentencing hearing is contained in State vs. Ammons, 105 Wn.2d 175 (1986). See RCW 9.94A.370 for a discussion of other disputed facts that may affect the defendant's sentence.

The 1988 Legislature directed the court to order presentence reports on all offenders convicted of felony sex offenses.

RCW 9.94A.120 SENTENCES.

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum five-year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
- (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
- (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
- (f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030 and/or perform community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) (i) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following: The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts, the defendant's offense history, an assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the offender's social and employment situation, and other evaluation measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the evaluator's information.

The examiner shall assess and report regarding the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

- (A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;
- (B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;
- (C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;

- (D) Anticipated length of treatment; and
- (E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(ii) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this subsection. If the court determines that this special sex offender sentencing alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range. If this sentence is less than eight years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(A) The court shall place the defendant on community supervision for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater; and

(B) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court in its discretion shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court, and shall not change providers without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change. In addition, as conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (II) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (III) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (IV) Pay all court ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030, perform community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (V) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(iii) The sex offender therapist shall submit quarterly reports on the defendant's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, defendant's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the defendant's relative progress in treatment, and any other material as specified by the court at sentencing.

(iv) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment professional and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the defendant's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions. Either party may request and the court may order another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The defendant shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (A) Modify conditions of community supervision, and either (B) terminate treatment, or (C) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community supervision.

(v) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community supervision and order execution of the sentence if: (A) The defendant violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (B) the court finds that the defendant is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(vi) After July 1, 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to RCW 18.155.030.

For purposes of this subsection, "victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sex offense committed before July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of social and health services for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment program at the location determined by the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court. The sentencing court shall commit the offender to the department of corrections to serve the balance of the term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of the term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of the community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, this subsection (b) shall cease to have effect.

(c) When an offender commits any felony sex offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

Except for an offender who has been convicted of a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or 9A.44.050, if the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (c) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987. This subsection (c) does not apply to any crime committed after July 1, 1990.

(d) Offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987, may, subject to available funds, request an evaluation by the department of corrections to determine whether they are amenable to treatment. If the offender is determined to be amenable to treatment, the offender may request placement in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department. Placement in such treatment program is subject to available funds.

(8) (a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed after July 1, 1988, but before July 1, 1990, assault in the second degree, any crime against a person where it is determined in accordance with RCW 9.94A.125 that the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of commission, or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW, committed on or after July 1, 1988, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to a one-year term of community placement beginning either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150(1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of such community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150(1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1990, the court shall in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community placement for two years or up to the period of earned early release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community placement shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement, then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of the community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150(1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community placement for offenders sentenced pursuant to this section shall include the following conditions:

(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;

(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;

(iii) The offender shall not consume controlled substances except pursuant to lawfully issued prescriptions;

(iv) An offender in community custody shall not unlawfully possess controlled substances; and

(v) The offender shall pay supervision fees as determined by the department of corrections.

(c) The court may also order any of the following special conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;

(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals;

(iii) The offender shall participate in crime-related treatment or counseling services;

(iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol;

(v) The residence location and living arrangements of a sex offender shall be subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections; or

(vi) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.

(d) Prior to transfer to, or during, community placement, any conditions of community placement may be removed or modified so as not to be more restrictive by the sentencing court, upon recommendation of the department of corrections.

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(10) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, the sentence shall specify the total amount of the legal financial obligation owed, and shall require the offender to pay a specified monthly sum toward that legal financial obligation. Restitution to victims shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations. Any legal financial obligation that is imposed by the court may be collected by the department, which shall deliver the amount paid to the county clerk for credit. The offender's compliance with payment of legal financial obligations shall be supervised by the department. All monetary payments ordered shall be paid no later than ten years after the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction or the date the sentence was entered. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation. Nothing in this section makes the department, the state, or any of its employees, agents, or other persons acting on their behalf liable under any circumstances for the payment of these legal financial obligations. If an order includes restitution as one of the monetary assessments, the county clerk shall make disbursements to victims named in the order.

(11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1) and 9.94A.142(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision or community placement which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, community placement, or legal financial obligation shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow explicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment, and paying the supervision fee assessment.

(13) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, or community placement under the supervision of the department of corrections shall not own, use, or possess firearms or ammunition. Offenders who own, use, or are found to be in actual or constructive possession of firearms or ammunition shall be subject to the appropriate violation process and sanctions. "Constructive possession" as used in this subsection means the power and intent to control the firearm or ammunition. "Firearm" as used in this subsection means a weapon or device from which a projectile may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder.

(14) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(15) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(16) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(17) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision or community placement.

(18) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention.

(19) All court-ordered legal financial obligations collected by the department and remitted to the county clerk shall be credited and paid where restitution is ordered. Restitution shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations.

Comment

RCW 9.94A.120(3) indicates that sentences outside the standard range are to be determinate sentences. The definition of determinate sentence is "a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution" (RCW 9.94A.030(10)). When the court sets a sentence outside the range, such sentence should be expressed in terms of the categories allowed under the law.

The First-time Offender Waiver allows the court to impose up to 90 days of confinement, even for offenders with a sentence range of 0 to 60 days.

The 1986 Legislature amended the provisions for inpatient treatment of sexual offenders. The sexual offender treatment program is being transferred from the Department of Social and Health Services to the Department of Corrections. The 1987 Legislature clarified that the transfer of the treatment program applies to offenders whose crimes were committed after July 1, 1987. Offenders whose crimes were committed before that date will still be sent to the program at Eastern and Western State Hospitals, but all sexual offenders will be transferred to the Department of Corrections by 1993. A provision requiring that the treatment provider find the offender amenable to treatment went into effect in 1986.

RCW 9.94A.120(14) codifies the constitutional requirement that the offender receive credit for time served prior to the sentencing. See State v. Phelan, 100 Wn.2d 508, 671 P.2d 1212 (1983).

The 1986 Legislature added subsection (15) to require courts to order restitution, or in the event it is not ordered, to set forth "extraordinary circumstances" in the record for not requiring restitution.

The 1987 Legislature added subsection (16) to allow the court to impose an order prohibiting an offender from contacting victims or other persons directly related to the circumstances of the crime. The court may impose this or other crime-related prohibitions for up to the statutory maximum for that crime.

Subsection (17) clarifies that partial confinement may be served in work release.

State v. Bernhard covers the court's authority to designate a treatment facility as an exceptional condition of a community supervision sentence. See 108 Wn.2d 527, 741 P.2d 1, (1987).

The 1988 Legislature established a program of community placement for certain offenders following their release from prison. RCW 9.94A.120(8) establishes the conditions of supervision for both community custody and postrelease supervision, the two forms of community placement.

The 1988 Legislature directed that restitution to victims shall be the first payment of monetary obligations (RCW 9.94A.120(10)). The legislature also clarified that the Department of Corrections is responsible for supervising payment of monetary obligations, and if the court does not set a schedule for payments, the department can set one.

The 1989 Legislature changed the allowable financial obligations to include payment for the cost of evaluating the offender's amenability to treatment and payment for the cost of treatment.

The 1990 Legislature increased the mandatory minimum sentence for First Degree Rape from three years to five years in RCW 9.94A.120(4).

The 1990 Legislature revised several aspects of the Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative. These include increasing the accountability of the treatment provider to the court, changing the maximum sentence allowed from six years to eight years, increasing the length of community supervision and treatment, and directing that, after July 1991, examinations and treatment under SSOSA be conducted by certified sex offender treatment providers.

The state hospital sex offender treatment program was phased out beginning in 1987. Offenders whose crimes were committed before July 1987 were no longer admitted to the hospital program nor were they eligible for the prison sex offender treatment program. The 1990 Legislature added a subsection (RCW 9.94A.120(7)(d)) allowing this category of sex offender to be admitted to the prison treatment program, subject to available funds.

The 1990 Legislature changed the allowable length of community placement for sex offenders and serious violent offenders from one year to either two years or the period of earned early release time, whichever is longer.

RCW 9.94A.123 LEGISLATIVE FINDING AND INTENT-- COMMITMENT OF FELONY SEXUAL OFFENDERS AFTER JULY 1, 1987.

The legislature finds that the sexual offender treatment programs at western and eastern state hospitals, while not proven to be totally effective, may be of some benefit in positively affecting the behavior of certain sexual offenders. Given the significance of the problems of sexual assault and sexual abuse of children, it is therefore appropriate to review and revise these treatment efforts.

At the same time, concerns regarding the lack of adequate security at the existing programs must be satisfactorily addressed. In an effort to promote public safety, it is the intent of the legislature to transfer the responsibility for felony sexual offenders from the department of social and health services to the department of corrections.

Therefore, no person committing a felony sexual offense on or after July 1, 1987, may be committed under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) to the department of social and health services at eastern state hospital or western state hospital. Any person committed to the department of social and health services under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) for an offense committed before July 1, 1987, and still in the custody of the department of social and health services on June 30, 1993, shall be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections. Any person eligible for evaluation or treatment under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) shall be committed to the department of corrections.

RCW 9.94A.124 SEXUAL OFFENDER SENTENCING ALTERNATIVES-- STUDY.

(1) The administrator for the courts shall organize and administer a blue ribbon panel which shall conduct a study to evaluate the effectiveness of the special sexual offender sentencing alternatives provided for in RCW 9.94A.120(7) (a) and (b).

(2) The blue ribbon panel must include among its membership the following persons:

- (a) A member of the sentencing guidelines commission;
- (b) A department of corrections official with expertise in sexual offender treatment;
- (c) A therapist specializing in sexual offender treatment, with experience in treating offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a);
- (d) A therapist from the Harborview sexual assault center who specializes in treating victims of sexual abuse;
- (e) A defense attorney with expertise in defending persons accused of sexual assault;
- (f) A prosecutor with expertise in prosecuting sexual assault crimes;
- (g) A superior court judge with experience in sentencing and monitoring offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a); and
- (h) A member of the Washington council on crime and delinquency.

The panel may consist of additional members. When considering additional members, the administrator for the courts shall seek the recommendations of the other panel members.

(3) (a) The panel shall evaluate the effectiveness of the special sexual offender sentencing alternative to determine whether the offenders, victims, and the community are benefiting from the sentencing alternative;

(b) The panel shall devise a series of recommendations regarding the following;

(i) The minimum qualifications, education, and experience a therapist must have before a therapist may assume responsibility for the sexual treatment ordered under RCW 9.94A.120(7);

(ii) A mandatory procedure for reporting violations of treatment or sentencing requirements in a timely manner to the sentencing judge and prosecuting attorney;

(iii) Guidelines for extending the two-year period of supervision if violations are not reported in a timely manner;

(iv) The appropriate length of treatment and community supervision during and after treatment; and

(v) Any other recommendations to improve the effectiveness of the treatment sentencing alternative.

(4) The panel shall report the study results to the legislature in writing no later than September 1, 1991.

RCW 9.94A.1241 STUDY RELATED TO PORNOGRAPHY AND SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT.

The blue ribbon panel on special sexual offender sentencing alternatives, created in 1989 under RCW 9.94A.124, shall consider whether offenders convicted of an offense under RCW 9.68A.070 or another felony related to pornography, should be eligible for sexual offender treatment under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) as a method of preventing future acts of sexual violence by some of these individuals. The panel shall include its recommendation on this topic in its September 1, 1991, report to the legislature.

RCW 9.94A.125 DEADLY WEAPON SPECIAL VERDICT--DEFINITION.

In a criminal case wherein there has been a special allegation and evidence establishing that the accused or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of the crime, the court shall make a finding of fact of whether or not the accused or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of the crime, or if a jury trial is had, the jury shall, if it find[s] the defendant guilty, also find a special verdict as to whether or not the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the commission of the crime.

For purposes of this section, a deadly weapon is an implement or instrument which has the capacity to inflict death and from the manner in which it is used, is likely to produce or may easily and readily produce death. The following instruments are included in the term deadly weapon: Blackjack, sling shot, billy, sand club, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than three inches, any razor with an unguarded blade, any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club, any explosive, and any weapon containing poisonous or injurious gas.

Comment

The Commission did not provide sentence enhancement for all crimes involving a deadly weapon. For some crimes where the use of the deadly weapon warranted additional punishment, the legislature adopted the Commission's recommendations that an offender have additional time added to the presumptive sentence. These crimes are: First Degree Kidnapping, First Degree Rape, First Degree Robbery, First Degree Burglary, Second Degree Assault, First Degree Escape, Second Degree Kidnapping, Second Degree Burglary (nondwelling only), and the Delivery of or Possession with Intent to Deliver A Controlled Substance (RCW 9.94A.310). (In 1988, the legislature added Theft of Livestock 1 and 2 to this list). The 1986 amendments clarified that the deadly weapon penalties apply to anticipatory offenses to commit one of these nine crimes. The 1986 amendments also clarified that the deadly weapon penalty applies to the drug offenses defined in RCW 9.94A.030(16), instead of applying only to the Delivery or Possession with Intent to Deliver.

The Commission was aware that State v. Workman, 90 Wn.2d 433, 554 P.2d 382 (1978), prohibits the "double counting" of an element for the purpose of proving the existence of the crime and using it as a factor in enhancing the sentence without specific legislative intent to so allow. Therefore, the Commission recommended enhancing the penalty for crimes involving deadly weapons for which the weapon is only an alternative element. The Commission decided that if there are different ways of committing an offense, that the method involving a deadly weapon deserved additional enhancement through a special allegation process.

The definition and procedural requirements for the deadly weapon allegation and finding are carried over from existing law. No distinction is made between a firearm and other types of deadly weapons. The mandatory prison term for a firearm finding, under RCW 9.41.025, and for a deadly weapon finding, under RCW 9.95.040, was abolished by the Sentencing Reform Act as to crimes committed on or after July 1, 1984.

The sentencing court should first calculate the presumptive sentence range for the current offense using the appropriate Offense Seriousness Level and Offender Score. Then the deadly weapon enhancement is added to the entire range. The court may impose any sentence within this enhanced range. The allegation of a deadly weapon cannot be used to enhance the sentence except under this section or upon stipulation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.370.

RCW 9.94A.127 SEXUAL MOTIVATION—SPECIAL ALLEGATION

(1) The prosecuting attorney shall file a special allegation of sexual motivation in every criminal case other than sex offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(29)(a) or (c) when sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify a finding of sexual motivation by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

(2) In a criminal case wherein there has been a special allegation the state shall prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused committed the crime with a sexual motivation. The court shall make a finding of fact of whether or not a sexual motivation was present at the time of the commission of the crime, or if a jury trial is had, the jury shall, if it finds the defendant guilty, also find a special verdict as to whether or not the defendant committed the crime with a sexual motivation. This finding shall not be applied to sex offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(29)(a) or (c).

(3) The prosecuting attorney shall not withdraw the special allegation of sexual motivation without approval of the court through an order of dismissal of the special allegation. The court shall not dismiss this special allegation unless it finds that such an order is necessary to correct an error in the initial charging decision or unless there are evidentiary problems which make proving the special allegation doubtful.

Comment

A finding of sexual motivation was created by the 1990 Legislature applicable to any crime except a sex crime.

RCW 9.94A.130 POWER TO DEFER OR SUSPEND SENTENCES ABOLISHED—EXCEPTIONS.

The power to defer or suspend the imposition or execution of sentence is hereby abolished in respect to sentences prescribed for felonies committed after June 30, 1984, except for offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a), the special sexual offender sentencing alternative, whose sentence may be suspended.

RCW 9.94A.135 Untitled New Section (Work Crew Requirements)

Participation in a work crew is conditioned upon the offender's acceptance into the program, abstinence from alcohol and controlled substances as demonstrated by urinalysis and breathalyzer monitoring, with the cost of monitoring to be paid by the offender, unless indigent; and upon compliance with the rules of the program, which rules shall include the requirements that the offender work to the best of his or her abilities and that he or she provide the program with accurate, verified residence information. Work crew may be imposed simultaneously with electronic home detention.

Where work crew is imposed as part of a sentence of nine months or more, the offender must serve a minimum of thirty days of total confinement before being eligible for work crew.

An offender who has successfully completed four weeks of work crew at thirty-five hours per week shall thereafter receive credit toward the work crew sentence for hours worked at approved, verified employment. Such employment credit may be earned for up to twenty-four hours actual employment per week provided, however, that every such offender shall continue active participation in work crews projects according to a schedule approved by a work crew supervisor until the work crew sentence has been served.

The hours served as part of a work crew sentence may include substance abuse counseling and/or job skills training.

The civic improvement tasks performed by offenders on work crew shall be unskilled labor for the benefit of the community as determined by the head of the executive branch or his or her designee. Civic improvement tasks shall not be done on private property unless it is owned or operated by a nonprofit entity, except that, for emergency purposes only, work crews may perform snow removal on any private property. The civic improvement tasks shall have minimal negative impact on existing private industries or the labor force in the county where the service or labor is performed. The civic improvement tasks shall not affect employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities contracted through sheltered workshops as defined in RCW 82.04.385. In case any dispute arises as to a civic improvement task having more than minimum negative impact on existing private industries or labor force in the county where their service or labor is performed, the matter shall be referred by an interested party, as defined in RCW 39.12.010(4), for arbitration to the director of the department of labor and industries of the state.

Whenever an offender receives credit against a work crew sentence for hours of approved, verified employment, the offender shall pay to the department administering the program the monthly assessment of an amount not less than ten dollars per month nor more than fifty dollars per month. This assessment shall be considered payment of the costs of providing the work crew program to an offender. The court may exempt a person from the payment of all or any part of the assessment based upon any of the following factors:

(1) The offender has diligently attempted but has been unable to obtain employment that provided the offender sufficient income to make such payment.

(2) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment.

(3) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by an examination acceptable to or ordered by the court.

(4) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents and the payment of the assessment constitutes an undue hardship.

(5) Other extenuating circumstances as determined by the court.

RCW 9.94A.140 RESTITUTION.

(1) If restitution is ordered, the court shall determine the amount of restitution due at the sentencing hearing or within sixty days. The court shall then set a minimum monthly payment that the offender is required to make towards the restitution that is ordered. The court should take into consideration the total amount of the restitution owed, the offender's present, past, and future ability to pay, as well as any assets that the offender may have. During the period of supervision, the community corrections officer may examine the offender to determine if there has been a change in circumstances that warrants an amendment of the monthly payment schedule. The community corrections officer may recommend a change to the schedule of payment and shall inform the court of the recommended change and the reasons for the change. The sentencing court may then reset the monthly minimum payments based on the report from the community corrections officer of the change in circumstances. Restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses, but may include the costs of counseling reasonably related to the offense. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a maximum term of ten years subsequent to the imposition of sentence. The portion of the sentence concerning restitution may be modified as to amount, terms and conditions during the ten-year period, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department.

(2) Restitution may be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property. In addition, restitution may be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

(3) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means.

(4) This section does not limit civil remedies or defenses available to the victim or defendant.

RCW 9.94A.142 RESTITUTION—OFFENSES COMMITTED AFTER JULY 1, 1985.

(1) When restitution is ordered, the court shall determine the amount of restitution due at the sentencing hearing or within sixty days. The court shall then set a minimum monthly payment that the offender is required to make towards the restitution that is ordered. The court should take into consideration the total amount of the restitution owed, the offender's present, past, and future ability to pay, as well as any assets that the offender may have. During the period of supervision, the community corrections officer may examine the offender to determine if there has been a change in circumstances that warrants an amendment of the monthly payment schedule. The community corrections officer may recommend a change to the schedule of payment and shall inform the court of the recommended change and the reasons for the change. The sentencing court may then reset the monthly minimum payments based on the report from the community corrections officer of the change in circumstances. Restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses, but may include the costs of counseling reasonably related to the offense. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a maximum term of ten years subsequent to the imposition of sentence. The portion of the sentence concerning restitution may be modified as to amount, terms and conditions during the ten-year period, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department.

(2) Restitution shall be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment and the court sets forth such circumstances in the record. In addition, restitution shall be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

(3) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means.

(4) This section does not limit civil remedies or defenses available to the victim, survivors of the victim, or defendant.

(5) This section shall apply to offenses committed after July 1, 1985.

Comment

The legislature has expressed a strong desire that victims receive restitution from offenders. Courts are urged to set restitution amounts "at the sentencing hearing or within sixty days." This time limit (as with others relating to the setting of hearings) is advisory to the courts and was not intended to create any right for a defendant to a speedy restitution hearing. See State v. Hartwell, 38 Wn. App. 135 (1984). (The 60-day rule is directory, not mandatory, and there must be a causal connection between the crime proven and the injuries for which restitution is ordered.)

RCW 9.94A.145 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of a felony, the court may order the payment of a legal financial obligation as part of the sentence. The court must on either judgment and sentence or on a subsequent order to pay, designate the total amount of a legal financial obligation and segregate this amount among the separate assessments made for restitution, costs, fines, and other assessments required by law. On the same order, the court is also to set a sum that the offender is required to pay on a monthly basis towards satisfying the legal financial obligation. If the court fails to set the offender monthly payment amount, the department shall set the amount. Upon receipt of an offender's monthly payment, after restitution is satisfied, the county clerk shall distribute the payment proportionally among all other fines, costs, and assessments imposed, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(2) If the court determines that the offender, at the time of sentencing, has the means to pay for the cost of incarceration, the court may require the offender to pay for the cost of incarceration at a rate of fifty dollars per day of incarceration. Payment of other court-ordered financial obligations, including all legal financial obligations and costs of supervision shall take precedence over the payment of the cost of incarceration ordered by the court. All funds recovered from offenders for the cost of incarceration in the county jail shall be remitted to the county and the costs of incarceration in a prison shall be remitted to the department of corrections.

(3) The court may add to the judgement and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction is to be immediately issued. If the court chooses not to order the immediate issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, the court shall add to the judgement and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken, without further notice to the offender if a monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month is owed.

If a judgement and sentence or subsequent order to pay does not include the statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken if a monthly legal financial obligation payment is past due, the department may serve a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorizations. Service shall be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(4) All legal financial obligations that are ordered as a result of a conviction for felony, may also be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action by the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed. These obligations may be enforced at any time during the ten-year period following the offender's release from total confinement or within ten years of entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period is longer. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation.

(5) In order to assist the court in setting a monthly sum that the offender must pay during the period of supervision, the offender is required to report to the department for purposes of preparing a recommendation to the court. When reporting, the offender is required, under oath, to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning present, past, and future earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. The offender is further required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department.

(6) After completing the investigation, the department shall make a report to the court on the amount of the monthly payment that the offender should be required to make towards a satisfied legal financial obligation.

(7) During the period of supervision, the department may make a recommendation to the court that the offender's monthly payment schedule be modified so as to reflect a change in financial circumstances. If the department sets the monthly payment amount, the department may modify the monthly payment amount without the matter being returned to the court. Also, during the period of supervision, the offender may be required at the request of the department to report to the department for the purposes of reviewing the appropriateness of the collection schedule for the legal financial obligation. During this reporting, the offender is required under oath to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. Also, the offender is required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department in order to prepare the collection schedule.

(8) After the judgment and sentence or payment order is entered, the department shall for any period of supervision be authorized to collect the legal financial obligation from the offender. Any amount collected by the department shall be remitted daily to the county clerk for the purposes of disbursements. The department is authorized to accept credit cards as payment for a legal financial obligation, and any costs incurred related to accepting credit card payments shall be the responsibility of the offender.

(9) The department or any obligee of the legal financial obligation may seek a mandatory wage assignment for the purposes of obtaining satisfaction for the legal financial obligation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.2001.

(10) The requirement that the offender pay a monthly sum towards a legal financial obligation constitutes a condition or requirement of a sentence and the offender is subject to the penalties as provided in RCW 9.94A.200 for noncompliance.

(11) The county clerk shall provide the department with individualized monthly billings for each offender with an unsatisfied legal financial obligation and shall provide the department with notice of payments by such offenders no less frequently than weekly.

RCW 9.94A.150 LEAVING CORRECTIONAL FACILITY OR RELEASE BEFORE EXPIRATION OF SENTENCE PROHIBITED--EXCEPTIONS.

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter and committed to the custody of the department shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided for in subsection (2) of this section, the term of the sentence of an offender committed to a correctional facility operated by the department, may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures that shall be developed and promulgated by the correctional agency having jurisdiction in which the offender is confined. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the correctional agency having jurisdiction. The correctional agency shall not credit the offender with earned early release credits in advance of the offender actually earning the credits. Any program established pursuant to this section shall allow an offender to earn early release credits for presentence incarceration. If an offender is transferred from a county jail to the department of corrections, the county jail facility shall certify to the department the amount of time spent in custody at the facility and the amount of earned early release time. In the case of an offender convicted of a serious violent offense or a sex offense that is a class A felony committed on or after July 1, 1990, the aggregate earned early release time may not exceed fifteen percent of the sentence. In no other case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence;

(2)] A person convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as a serious violent offense, assault in the second degree, any crime against a person where it is determined in accordance with RCW 9.94A.125 that the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of commission, or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW may become eligible, in accordance with a program developed by the department, for transfer to community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to subsection (1) of this section;

(3) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers;

(4) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

(5) No more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the offender in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community;

(6) The governor may pardon any offender;

(7) The department of corrections may release an offender from confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section; and

(8) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

Comment

The 1988 Legislature added several sections related to community placement. The eligibility period of work release was also changed, so offenders sent to prison are eligible to serve the final six months of their sentence in partial confinement (work release).

The 1990 Legislature changed the maximum earned early release time to fifteen percent of the sentence for offenders convicted of Class A sex offenses and serious violent offenses. The legislature also clarified that earned early release credits shall not be granted until earned.

RCW 9.94A.151 NOTIFICATION OF SEX OFFENDER RELEASE.

Three months before the anticipated release from total confinement of a person convicted of a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 that was committed between June 30, 1984, and July 1, 1988, the department shall notify in writing the prosecuting attorney of the county where the person was convicted. The department shall inform the prosecutor of the following:

- (1) The person's name, identifying factors, anticipated future residence, and offense history;
- (2) A brief narrative describing the person's conduct during confinement and any treatment received; and
- (3) Whether the department recommends that a civil commitment petition be filed under RCW 71.05.030.

The department, its employees, and officials shall be immune from liability for any good-faith conduct under this section.

RCW 9.94A.152 IMMUNE FROM LIABILITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION.

The department, its employees, and officials, shall be immune from liability for release of information regarding sex offenders that complies with RCW 4.24.550

RCW 9.94A.153 RELEASE OF INFORMATION CONCERNING SEX OFFENDERS.

In addition to any other information required to be released under other provisions of this chapter, the department may, pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 release information concerning convicted sex offenders confined to the department of corrections.

RCW 9.94A.154 DRUG OFFENDERS--NOTICE OF RELEASE

(1) At the earliest possible date, and in no event later than ten days before release except in the event of escape or emergency furloughs as defined in RCW 72.66.010, the department of corrections shall send written notice of parole, community placement, work release placement, furlough, or escape about a specific inmate convicted of a serious drug offense to the following if such notice has been requested in writing about a specific inmate convicted of a serious drug offense:

(a) Any witnesses who testified against the inmate in any court proceedings involving the serious drug offense; and

(b) Any person specified in writing by the prosecuting attorney. Information regarding witnesses requesting the notice, information regarding any other person specified in writing by the prosecuting attorney to receive the notice, and the notice are confidential and shall not be available to the inmate.

(2) If an inmate convicted of a serious drug offense escapes from a correctional facility, the department of corrections shall immediately notify, by the most reasonable and expedient means available, the chief of police of the city and the sheriff of the county in which the inmate resided immediately before the inmate's arrest and conviction. If previously requested, the department shall also notify the witnesses who are entitled to notice under this section. If the inmate is recaptured, the department shall send notice to the persons designated in this subsection as soon as possible but in no event later than two working days after the department learns of such recapture.

(3) If any witness is under the age of sixteen, the notice required by this section shall be sent to the parents or legal guardian of the child.

(4) The department of corrections shall send the notices required by this section to the last address provided to the department by the requesting party. The requesting party shall furnish the department with a current address.

(5) For purposes of this section, "serious drug offense" means an offense under RCW 69.50.401 (a)(1)(i) or (b)(1)(i).

RCW 9.94A.155 PRISONER ESCAPE, RELEASE, OR FURLOUGH--NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES.

(1) At the earliest possible date, and in no event later than ten days before release except in the event of escape or emergency furloughs as defined in RCW 72.66.010, the department of corrections shall send written notice of parole, community placement, work release placement, furlough, or escape about a specific inmate convicted of a violent offense or a sex offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030, to all of the following:

(a) The chief of police of the city, if any, in which the inmate will reside or in which placement will be made in a work release program; and

(b) The sheriff of the county in which the inmate will reside or in which placement will be made in a work release program.

(2) The same notice as required by subsection (1) of this section shall be sent to the following if such notice has been requested in writing about a specific inmate convicted of a violent offense or a sex offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030:

(a) The victim of the crime for which the inmate was convicted or the victim's next of kin if the crime was a homicide;

(b) Any witnesses who testified against the inmate in any court proceedings involving the violent offense; and

(c) Any person specified in writing by the prosecuting attorney.

Information regarding victims, next of kin, or witnesses requesting the notice, information regarding any other person specified in writing by the prosecuting attorney to receive the notice, and the notice are confidential and shall not be available to the inmate.

(3) If an inmate convicted of a violent offense or a sex offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030 escapes from a correctional facility, the department of corrections shall immediately notify, by the most reasonable and expedient means available, the chief of police of the city and the sheriff of the county in which the inmate resided immediately before the inmate's arrest and conviction. If previously requested, the department shall also notify the witnesses and the victim of the crime for which the inmate was convicted or the victim's next of kin if the crime was a homicide. If the inmate is recaptured, the department shall send notice to the persons designated in this subsection as soon as possible but in no event later than two working days after the department learns of such recapture.

(4) If the victim, the victim's next of kin, or any witness is under the age of sixteen, the notice required by this section shall be sent to the parents or legal guardian of the child.

(5) The department of corrections shall send the notices required by this chapter to the last address provided to the department by the requesting party. The requesting party shall furnish the department with a current address.

(6) For purposes of this section the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Violent offense" means a violent offense under RCW 9.94A.030;

(b) "Next of kin" means a person's spouse, parents, siblings and children.

(7) Nothing in this section shall impose any liability upon a chief of police of a city or sheriff of a county for failing to request in writing a notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

RCW 9.94A.156 PRISONER ESCAPE, RELEASE, OR FURLOUGH-- HOMICIDE AND VIOLENT OFFENSES, RIGHTS OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES.

The department of corrections shall provide the victims and next of kin in the case of a homicide and witnesses involved in violent offense cases or sex offenses as defined by RCW 9.94A.030 where a judgment and sentence was entered after October 1, 1983, a statement of the rights of victims and witnesses to request and receive notification under RCW 9.94A.155 and 9.94A.157.

Comment

The 1989 Legislature added sex offenses to the crimes whereby victims must be notified of their rights including the right to receive notification of a prisoner release.

RCW 9.94A.157 PRISONER ESCAPE, RELEASE, OR FURLOUGH-- REQUESTS FOR NOTIFICATION.

Requests for notification under RCW 9.94A.155 shall be made by sending a written request by certified mail directly to the department of corrections and giving the defendant's name, the name of the county in which the trial took place, and the month of the trial. Notification information and necessary forms shall be available through the department of corrections, county prosecutors' offices, and other agencies as deemed appropriate by the department of corrections.

RCW 9.94A.158 PRISONER ESCAPE, RELEASE, OR FURLOUGH-- NOTIFICATION AS ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENT.

The notification requirements of RCW 9.94A.155 are in addition to any requirements in RCW 43.43.745 or other law.

RCW 9.94A.159 PRISONER ESCAPE, RELEASE, OR FURLOUGH-- CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO NOTIFY.

Civil liability shall not result from failure to provide notice required under RCW 9.94A.155 through 9.94A.158, 9.94A.030, and 43.43.745 unless the failure is the result of gross negligence.

RCW 9.94A.160 EMERGENCY DUE TO INMATE POPULATION EXCEEDING CORRECTIONAL FACILITY CAPACITY.

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the population of a state residential correctional facility exceeds its reasonable, maximum capacity, then the governor may do any one or more of the following:

(1) Call the sentencing guidelines commission into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating the standard ranges and other standards. The commission may adopt any revision or amendment to the standard ranges or other standards that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. The revision or amendment shall be adopted in conformity with chapter 34.05 RCW and shall take effect on the date prescribed by the commission. The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment;

(2) If the emergency occurs prior to July 1, 1988, call the board of prison terms and paroles into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating its guidelines and procedures for release of prisoners under its jurisdiction. The board shall adopt guidelines for the reduction of inmate population to be used in the event the governor calls the board into an emergency meeting under this section. The board shall not, under this subsection, reduce the prison term of an inmate serving a mandatory minimum term under RCW 9.95.040, an inmate confined for treason, an inmate confined for any violent offense as defined by RCW 9.94A.030, or an inmate who has been found to be a sexual psychopath under chapter 71.06 RCW. In establishing these guidelines, the board shall give priority to sentence reductions for inmates confined for nonviolent offenses, inmates who are within six months of a scheduled parole, and inmates with the best records of conduct during confinement. The board shall consider the public safety, the detrimental effect of overcrowding upon inmate rehabilitation, and the best allocation of limited correctional facility resources. Guidelines adopted under this subsection shall be submitted to the senate institutions and house of representatives social and health services committees for their review. This subsection does not require the board to reduce inmate population to or below any certain number. The board may also take any other action authorized by law to modify the terms of prisoners under its jurisdiction;

(3) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

RCW 9.94A.165 EMERGENCY IN COUNTY JAILS POPULATION EXCEEDING CAPACITY.

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the populations of county jails exceed their reasonable, maximum capacity in a significant manner as a result of increases in the sentenced felon population due to implementation of chapter 9.94A RCW, the governor may do any one or more of the following:

(1) Call the sentencing guidelines commission into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating the standard ranges and other standards. The commission may adopt any revision or amendment to the standard ranges or other standards that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. The revision or amendment shall be adopted in conformity with chapter 34.05 RCW and shall take effect on the date prescribed by the commission. The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment. The commission shall also analyze how alternatives to total confinement are being provided and used and may recommend other emergency measures that may relieve the overcrowding.

(2) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

RCW 9.94A.170 TOLLING OF TERM OF CONFINEMENT.

(1) A term of confinement, including community custody, ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from confinement without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed. A term of partial confinement shall be tolled during any period of time spent in total confinement pursuant to a new conviction or pursuant to sanctions for violation of sentence conditions on a separate felony conviction.

(2) A term of supervision, including postrelease supervision ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from supervision without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed.

(3) Any period of supervision shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to RCW 9.94A.207 or 9.94A.195 and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of supervision, time spent in confinement due to such detention shall not toll to period of supervision.

(4) For confinement sentences, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the entity responsible for the confinement. For sentences involving supervision, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the court, based on reports from the entity responsible for the supervision.

Comment

The 1988 Legislature clarified the law regarding tolling of community supervision for time spent in confinement or for an approved absence.

RCW 9.94A.175 POSTRELEASE SUPERVISION--VIOLATIONS-- EXPENSES.

If the offender violates any condition of postrelease supervision, a hearing may be conducted in the same manner as provided in RCW 9.94A.200. Jurisdiction shall be with the court of the county in which the offender was sentenced. However, the court may order a change of venue to the offender's county of residence or where the violation occurred, for the purpose of holding a violation hearing.

After the hearing, the court may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days per violation in the county jail. Reimbursement to a city or county for the care of offenders who are detained solely for violating a condition of postrelease supervision shall be under RCW 70.48.440. A county shall be reimbursed for indigent defense costs for offenders who are detained solely for violating a condition of postrelease supervision in accordance with regulations to be promulgated by the office of financial management. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

RCW 9.94A.180 TERM OF PARTIAL CONFINEMENT, WORK RELEASE, HOME DETENTION.

(1) An offender sentenced to a term of partial confinement shall be confined in the facility for at least eight hours per day or, if serving a work crew sentence shall comply with the conditions of that sentence as set forth in RCW 9.94A.030(23) and RCW 9.94A.135. The offender shall be required as a condition of partial confinement to report to the facility at designated times. An offender may be required to comply with crime-related prohibitions during the period of partial confinement.

(2) An offender in a county jail ordered to serve all or part of a term of less than one year in work release, work crew, or a program of home detention who violates the rules of the work release facility, work crew, or program of home detention or fails to remain employed or enrolled in school may be transferred to the appropriate county detention facility without further court order but shall, upon request, be notified of the right to request an administrative hearing on the issue of whether or not the offender failed to comply with the order and relevant conditions. Pending such hearing, or in the absence of a request for the hearing, the offender shall serve the remainder of the term of confinement as total confinement. This subsection shall not affect transfer or placement of offenders committed to the state department of corrections.

Comment

The 1987 Legislature added subsection (2) to clarify the procedures for county jails when work release rules are violated.

RCW 9.94A.190 TERMS OF MORE THAN ONE YEAR OR LESS THAN ONE YEAR--WHERE SERVED--REIMBURSEMENT OF COSTS.

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county, or if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in the residence of either the defendant or a member of the defendant's immediate family.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Comment

See also RCW 70.48.400: "Persons sentenced to felony terms or a combination of terms of more than three hundred sixty-five days of incarceration shall be committed to state institutions under the authority of the Department of Corrections. Persons serving sentences of three hundred sixty-five consecutive days or less may be sentenced to a jail as defined in RCW 70.48.020. All persons convicted of felonies or misdemeanors and sentenced to jail shall be the financial responsibility of the city or county."

The 1986 amendments included a new subsection (3) which provides that offenders with a sentence greater than a year, who also have a sentence less than a year, will serve the entire period of time in a state institution. Prior to this amendment, offenders were transferred from the state institution to a local facility to serve sentences of less than one year.

RCW 9.94A.195 VIOLATION OF CONDITION OR REQUIREMENT OF SENTENCE--ARREST BY COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OFFICER-- CONFINEMENT IN COUNTY JAIL.

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, a community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest of the offender without a warrant, pending a determination by the court. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an offender has violated a condition or requirement of the sentence, an offender may be required to submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property. A community corrections officer may also arrest an offender for any crime committed in his or her presence. The facts and circumstances of the conduct of the offender shall be reported by the community corrections officer, with recommendations, to the court.

If a community corrections officer arrests or causes the arrest of an offender under this section, the offender shall be confined and detained in the county jail of the county in which the offender was taken into custody, and the sheriff of that county shall receive and keep in the county jail, where room is available, all prisoners delivered to the jail by the community corrections officer, and such offenders shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the court, pursuant to a written order.

Comment

The Commission intends that Community Corrections Officers exercise their arrest powers sparingly, with due consideration for the seriousness of the violation alleged and the impact of confinement on jail population. Violations may be charged by the Community Corrections Officer upon notice of violation and summons, without arrest.

The search and seizure authorized by this section should relate to the violation which the Community Corrections Officer believes to have occurred.

RCW 9.94A.200 NONCOMPLIANCE WITH CONDITION OR REQUIREMENT OF SENTENCE--PROCEDURE--PENALTY.

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the offender to show cause why the offender should not be punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the offender's appearance;

(b) The state has the burden of showing noncompliance by a preponderance of the evidence. If the court finds that the violation has occurred, it may order the offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may (i) convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement; (ii) convert community service obligation to total or partial confinement, or (iii) convert monetary obligations, except restitution and the crime victim penalty assessment, to community service hours at the rate of the state minimum wage as established in RCW 49.46.020 for each hour of community service. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on noncompliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may modify its previous order regarding payment of legal financial obligations and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Comment

Although the legislature has not adopted specific guidelines for the length of sanctions for various violations, the imposition of sanctions should be evaluated with reference to the standard range of the original offense. Rarely should the time to be served for violations exceed the underlying standard range.

The 1988 Legislature clarified that the state has the burden of showing noncompliance and established the standard of review. The legislature also allowed courts to convert community service to confinement or to convert certain monetary obligations to community service hours.

RCW 9.94A.200005 "EARNINGS," "DISPOSABLE EARNINGS," AND "OBLIGEE" DEFINED.

As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, hours, or otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy court-ordered legal financial obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld. The term "obligee" means the department, party, or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed, or the department, party, or entity to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

RCW 9.94A.200010 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATION - NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION - ISSUANCE AND CONTENT.

(1) The department may issue a notice of payroll deduction in a criminal action if:

(a) The court at sentencing orders its immediate issuance; or

(b) The offender is more than thirty days past due in monthly payments in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, provided:

(i) The judgement and sentence or subsequent order to pay contains a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued without further notice to the offender; or

(ii) The department has served a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorization. Service of such notice shall be made by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) The notice of payroll deduction is to be in writing and include:

(a) The name, social security number, and identifying court case number of the offender / employee;

(b) The amount to be deducted from the offender / employee's disposable earnings each month, or alternative amounts and frequencies as may be necessary to facilitate processing of the payroll deduction by the employer;

(c) A statement that the total amount withheld on all payroll deduction notices for payment of court-ordered legal financial obligations combined shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the offender / employee's disposable earnings; and

(d) The address to which the payments are to be mailed or delivered.

(3) An information copy of the notice of payroll deduction shall be mailed to the offender's last known address by regular mail or shall be personally served.

(4) Neither the department nor any agents of the department shall be held liable for actions taken under RCW 9.94A.145 and RCW 9.94A.200005, RCW 9.94A.200010, RCW 9.94A.200015, RCW 9.94A.200020, RCW 9.94A.200025, RCW 9.94A.200030, RCW 9.94A.200035, RCW 9.94A.200040, RCW 9.94A.200045, and RCW 9.94A.200050.

RCW 9.94A.200015 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION - AMOUNTS TO BE WITHHELD.

(1) The total amount to be withheld from the offender / employee's earnings each month, or from each earning disbursement, shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the disposable earnings of the offender.

(2) If the offender is subject to two or more notices of payroll deduction for payment of a court-ordered legal financial obligation from different obligees, the employer or entity shall, if the nonexempt portion of the offender's earnings is not sufficient to respond fully to all notices of payroll deduction, apportion of the offender's nonexempt disposable earnings between or among the various obligees equally.

RCW 9.94A.200020 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION - EMPLOYER OR ENTITY RESPONSIBILITIES.

(1) An employer or entity upon whom a notice of payroll deduction is served, shall make an answer to the department within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall confirm compliance and institution of the payroll deduction or explain the circumstances if no payroll deduction is in effect. The answer shall also state whether the offender is employed by or receives earnings from the employer or entity, whether the employer or entity anticipates paying earnings, and the amount of earnings. If the offender is no longer employed, or receiving earnings from the employer or entity, the answer shall state the present employer or entity's name and address, if known.

(2) Service of a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer or entity requires an employer or entity to immediately make a mandatory payroll deduction from the offender / employee's unpaid disposable earnings. The employer or entity shall thereafter at each pay period deduct the amount stated in the notice divided by the number of pay periods per month. The employer or entity must remit the proper amounts to the appropriate clerk of the court on each date the offender / employee is due to be paid.

(3) The employer or entity may combine amounts withheld from the earnings of more than one employee in a single payment to the clerk of the court, listing separately the amount of the payment that is attributable to each individual employee.

(4) The employer or entity may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the notice of payroll deduction, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 9.94A.200050. The processing fee may not exceed:

- (a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the clerk of the court; and
- (b) One dollar for each subsequent disbursement made under the notice of payroll deduction.

(5) The notice of payroll deduction shall remain in effect until released by the department or the court enters an order terminating the notice.

(6) An employer shall be liable to the obligee for the amount of court-ordered legal financial obligation moneys that should have been withheld from the offender / employee's earnings, if the employer:

- (a) Fails or refuses, after being served with a notice of payroll deduction, to deduct and promptly remit from unpaid earnings the amounts of money required in the notice; or

(b) Fails or refuses to submit an answer to the notice of payroll deduction after being served. In such cases, liability may be established in superior court. Awards in superior court shall include costs, interest under RCW 19.52.020 and 4.56.110, reasonable attorney fees, and staff costs as part of the award.

(7) No employer who complies with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discipline or discharge an employee or refuse to hire a person by reason of an action authorized in this chapter. If an employer disciplines or discharges an employee or refuses to hire a person in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of the lost wages and any other damages suffered as a result of violation and for costs and reasonable attorney fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

RCW 9.94A.200025 MOTION TO QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE PAYROLL DEDUCTION - GROUNDS FOR RELIEF.

(1) The offender subject to a payroll deduction under this chapter, may file a motion in superior court to quash, modify, or terminate the payroll deduction. The court may grant relief if:

(a) It is demonstrated that the payroll deduction causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice; or

(b) In cases where the court did not immediately order the issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, that a court-ordered legal financial obligation payment was not more than thirty days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month.

(2) Satisfaction by the offender of all past-due payments subsequent to the issuance of the notice of payroll deduction is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the notice of payroll deduction. If a notice of payroll deduction has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the offender's payment towards a court-ordered legal financial obligation is current, upon motion of the offender, the court may order the department to terminate the payroll deduction, unless the department can show good cause as to why the notice of payroll deduction should remain in effect.

RCW 9.94A.200030 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER - ISSUE AND CONTENTS.

(1) The department may issue to any person or entity an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind, including but not restricted to, earnings that are due, owing, or belonging to the offender, if the department has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person or entity, property that is due, owing, or belonging to the offender. Such order to withhold and deliver may be issued when a court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is past due:

(a) If an offender's judgement and sentence or a subsequent order to pay includes a statement that other income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender.

(b) If a judgement and sentence or a subsequent order to pay does not include the statement that other income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender but the department has served a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorizations. The service shall have been made by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) The order to withhold and deliver shall:

(a) Include the amount of the court-ordered legal financial obligation ;

(b) Contain a summary of moneys that may be exempt from the order to withhold and deliver and a summary of the civil liability upon failure to comply with the order; and

(c) Be served by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(3) The department shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the offender at the offender's last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order shall be personally served on the offender on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with an explanation of the right to petition for judicial review. If the copy is not mailed or served as this section provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the offender promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the offender has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver.

RCW 9.94A.200035 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER - DUTIES OF PERSON OR ENTITY SERVED.

(1) A person or entity upon whom service has been made is hereby required to:

(a) Answer the order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the order; and

(b) Provide further and additional answers when requested by the department.

(2) Any person or entity in possession of any property that may be subject to the order to withhold and deliver shall:

(a)(i) Immediately withhold such property upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver;

(ii) Deliver the property to the appropriate clerk of the court as soon as the twenty-day answer period expires;

(iii) Continue to withhold earnings payable to the offender at each succeeding disbursement interval and deliver amounts withheld from earnings to the appropriate clerk of the court within ten days of the date earnings are payable to the offender;

(iv) Inform the department of the date the amounts were withheld as requested under this section; or

(b) Furnish the appropriate clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the clerk, conditioned upon final determination of liability.

(3) Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, expressed or implied, or is held by any person or entity subject to withdrawal by the offender, the money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the appropriate clerk of the court.

(4) Delivery to the appropriate clerk of the court of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement and serve as full acquittance of the order to withhold and deliver.

(5) The person or entity required to withhold and deliver the earnings of a debtor under this action may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the offender's earnings, even if the remainder would otherwise be exempt under RCW 9.94A.200050. The processing fee may not exceed:

(a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement to the appropriate clerk of the court; and

(b) One dollar for each subsequent disbursement.

(6) A person or entity shall be liable to the obligee in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the court-ordered legal financial obligation that is the basis of the order to withhold and deliver, or the amount that should have been withheld, whichever amount is less, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney's fees if that person or entity fails or refuses to deliver property under the order.

The department is authorized to issue a notice of debt pursuant to and to take appropriate action to collect the debt under this chapter if a judgement has been entered as the result of an action by the court against a person or entity based on a violation of this section.

(7) Persons or entities delivering money or property to the appropriate clerk of the court under this chapter shall not be held liable for wrongful delivery.

(8) Persons or entities withholding money or property under this chapter shall not be held liable for wrongful withholding.

RCW 9.94A.200040 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - BANKS, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, CREDIT UNIONS - SERVICE ON MAIN OFFICE OR BRANCH, EFFECT - COLLECTION ACTIONS AGAINST COMMUNITY BANK ACCOUNT, RIGHT TO COURT HEARING.

An order to withhold and deliver or any other income-withholding action authorized by this chapter may be served on the main office of a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union or on a branch office of the financial institution. Service on the main office shall be effective to attach the deposits of an offender in the financial institution and compensation payable for personal service due the offender from the financial institution. Service on a branch office shall be effective to attach the deposits, accounts, credits, or other personal property of the offender, excluding compensation payable for personal services, in the possession or control of the particular branch served.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, if the department initiates collection action against a joint bank account, with or without the right of survivorship, or any other funds which are subject to the community property laws of this state, notice shall be given to all affected parties that the account or funds are subject to potential withholding. Such notice shall be by first class mail, return receipt required, or by personal service and be given at least twenty calendar days before withholding is made. Upon receipt of such notice, the nonobligated person shall have ten calendar days to file a petition with the department contesting the withholding of his or her interest in the account or funds. The department shall provide notice of the right of the filing of the petition with the notice provided in this paragraph. If the petition is not filed within the period provided for herein, the department is authorized to proceed with the collection action.

RCW 9.94A.200045 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - NOTICE OF DEBT - SERVICE OR MAILING - CONTENTS - ACTION ON, WHEN.

(1) The department may issue a notice of debt in order to enforce and collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt through either a notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver.

(2) The notice of debt may be personally served upon the offender or be mailed to the offender at his or her last known address by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, demanding payment within twenty days of the date of receipt.

(3) The notice of debt shall include:

(a) A statement of the total court-ordered legal financial obligation and the amount to be paid each month.

(b) A statement that earnings are subject to a notice of payroll deduction.

(c) A statement that earnings or property, or both, are subject to an order to withhold and deliver.

(d) A statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the court-ordered legal financial obligation.

(4) Action to collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation by notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver shall be lawful after twenty days from the date of service upon the offender or twenty days from the receipt or refusal by the offender of the notice of debt.

(5) The notice of debt will take effect only if the offender's monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month is owed.

(6) The department shall not be required to issue or serve the notice of debt in order to enforce and collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt through either a notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver if either the offender's judgement and sentence or a subsequent order to pay includes a statement that income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender.

RCW 9.94A.200050 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS - CERTAIN AMOUNT OF EARNINGS EXEMPT FROM NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION OR ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER.

Whenever a notice of payroll deduction or order to withhold and deliver is served upon a person or entity asserting a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt against earnings and there is in the possession of the person or entity any of the earnings, RCW 6.27.150 shall not apply, but seventy-five percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the offender whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there is due the offender earnings for one week or for a longer period. The notice of payroll deduction or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person or entity to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings, at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the court-ordered legal financial obligation debt has been withheld.

RCW 9.94A.2001 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--PETITION OR MOTION.

A petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment in a criminal action may be filed by the department or any obligee if the offender is more than thirty days past due in monthly payments in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the secretary or designee, or if filed solely by an obligee, by such obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the wage assignment order, including: (1) That the offender, stating his or her name and last known residence, is more than thirty days past due in payments in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month; (2) a description of the terms of the judgment and sentence and/or payment order requiring payment of a court-ordered legal financial obligation, the total amount remaining unpaid, and the amount past due; (3) the name and address of the offender's employer; (4) that notice by personal service, or any form of mail requiring a return receipt, has been provided to the offender at least fifteen days prior to the filing of a mandatory wage assignment, unless the judgment and sentence or the order for payment states that the department or obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without notice to the defendant. A copy of the judgment and sentence or payment order shall be attached to the petition or motion seeking the wage assignment.

RCW 9.94A.2002 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--ANSWER.

Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment that complies with RCW 9.94A.2001, the court shall issue a wage assignment order as provided in RCW 9.94A.2004 and including the information required in RCW 9.94A.2001, directed to the employer, and commanding the employer to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with RCW 9.94A.2006 within twenty days after service of the order upon the employer.

RCW 9.94A.2003 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--AMOUNTS TO BE WITHHELD.

(1) The wage assignment order in RCW 9.94A.2002 shall include: (a) The maximum amount or current amount owed on a court-ordered legal financial obligation, if any, to be withheld from the defendant's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement; and (b) the total amount of the arrearage or reimbursement judgment previously entered by the court, if any, together with interest, if any.

(2) The total amount to be withheld from the defendant's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement, shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the disposable earnings of the defendant. If the amounts to be paid toward the arrearage are specified in the payment order, then the maximum amount to be withheld is the sum of the current amount owed and the amount ordered to be paid toward the arrearage, or twenty-five percent of the disposable earnings of the defendant, whichever is less.

(3) If the defendant is subject to two or more attachments for payment of a court-ordered legal financial obligation on account of different obligees, the employer shall, if the nonexempt portion of the defendant's earnings is not sufficient to respond fully to all the attachments, apportion the defendant's nonexempt disposable earnings between or among the various obligees equally. Any obligee may seek a court order reapportioning the defendant's nonexempt disposable earnings upon notice to all interested parties. Notice shall be by personal service, or in the manner provided by the civil rules of superior court or applicable statute.

RCW 9.94A.2004 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--RULES.

RCW 9.94A.2005 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITIES.

(1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the offender is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple attachments against the offender.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the offender, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The employer shall deliver the withheld earnings to the clerk of the court pursuant to the wage assignment order. The employer shall make the first delivery no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order.

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the offender until notified that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the clerk of the court who entered the order when the employee is no longer employed.

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 9.94A.2003. The processing fee may not exceed: (a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the clerk of the court; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement made under the wage assignment order.

(5) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment order issued under this chapter may be held liable for the amounts disbursed to the offender in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(6) No employer who complies with a wage assignment order issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(7) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment order issued and executed under this chapter. A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(8) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

RCW 9.94A.2006 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--FORM AND RULES.

The department shall develop a form and adopt rules for the wage assignment answer, and instructions for employers for preparing such answer.

RCW 9.94A.2007 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--SERVICE.

(1) Service of the wage assignment order on the employer is invalid unless it is served with five answer forms in substantial conformance with RCW 9.94A.2006, together with stamped envelopes addressed to, respectively, the clerk of the court where the order was issued, the obligee's attorney, the petitioner, the department, and the obligor. The petitioner shall also include an extra copy of the wage assignment order for the employer to deliver to the obligor. Service on the employer shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the wage assignment order on the employer, the petitioner shall mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor at the obligor's last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the wage assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the employer. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing of service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the wage assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the defendant has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

RCW 9.94A.2008 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--HEARING--SCOPE OF RELIEF.

In a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing that the wage assignment order causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice. Satisfaction by the defendant of all past-due payments subsequent to the issuance of the wage assignment order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order. If a wage assignment order has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's payment towards a court-ordered legal financial obligation is current, the court may terminate the order upon motion of the obligor unless the obligee or the department can show good cause as to why the wage assignment order should remain in effect. The department shall notify the employer of any modification or termination of the wage assignment order.

RCW 9.94A.2009 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS--RECOVERY OF COSTS, ATTORNEYS' FEES.

In any action to enforce legal financial obligations under this chapter, the prevailing party is entitled to a recovery of costs, including an award for reasonable attorneys' fees. An obligor may not be considered a prevailing party under this section unless the obligee has acted in bad faith in connection with the proceeding in question.

RCW 9.94A.201 LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--WAGE ASSIGNMENTS --SENTENCES IMPOSED BEFORE JULY 1, 1989.

For those individuals who, as a condition and term of their sentence imposed on or before July 1, 1989, have had financial obligations imposed, and who are not in compliance with the court order requiring payment of that legal financial obligation, no action shall be brought before the court from July 1, 1989, through and including December 31, 1989, to impose a penalty for their failure to pay. All individuals who, after December 31, 1989, have not taken the opportunity to bring their legal financial obligation current, shall be proceeded against pursuant to RCW 9.94A.200.

Comment

The preceding sections were passed by the 1989 Legislature, effective July 1, 1990, to set criteria for collecting legal financial obligations by the Department of Corrections. RCW 9.94A.201 was effective in 1989 but stayed action against offenders in noncompliance with their payments on legal financial obligations until January 1990.

RCW 9.94A.205 COMMUNITY CUSTODY--VIOLATIONS.

If an inmate violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the department may transfer the inmate to a more restrictive confinement status to serve the remaining portion of the sentence, less credit for any period actually spent in community custody or in detention awaiting disposition of an alleged violation. If an inmate is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before the department prior to the imposition of sanctions. The hearing shall be considered as inmate disciplinary proceedings and shall not be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The department shall develop hearing procedures and sanctions.

RCW 9.94A.207 COMMUNITY PLACEMENT VIOLATORS--ARREST, DETENTION, FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.

(1) The secretary may issue warrants for the arrest of any offender who violates a condition of community placement. The arrest warrants shall authorize any law enforcement or peace officer or community corrections officer of this state or any other state where such offender may be located, to arrest the offender and place him or her in total confinement pending disposition of the alleged violation. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440. A community corrections officer, if he or she has reasonable cause to believe an offender in community placement has violated a condition of community placement, may suspend the person's community placement status and arrest or cause the arrest and detention in total confinement of the offender, pending the determination of the secretary as to whether the violation has occurred. The community corrections officer shall report to the secretary all facts and circumstances and the reasons for the action of suspending community placement status. A violation of a condition of community placement shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for purposes of RCW 9.94A.195. The authority granted to community corrections officers under this section shall be in addition to that set forth in RCW 9.94A.195.

(2) Inmates, as defined in RCW 72.09.020, who have been transferred to community custody and who are detained in a local correctional facility are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. The community custody inmate shall be removed from the local correctional facility not later than eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, following admittance to the local correctional facility and notification that the inmate is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, the department may negotiate with local correctional authorities for an additional period of detention.

Comment

The 1988 Legislature added three sections related to the community placement program.

RCW 9.94A.210 WHICH SENTENCES APPEALABLE--PROCEDURE--GROUNDS FOR REVERSAL--WRITTEN OPINIONS.

(1) A sentence within the standard range for the offense shall not be appealed. For purposes of this section, a sentence imposed on a first offender under RCW 9.94A.120(5) shall also be deemed to be within the standard range for the offense and shall not be appealed.

(2) A sentence outside the sentence range for the offense is subject to appeal by the defendant or the state. The appeal shall be to the court of appeals in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court.

(3) Pending review of the sentence, the sentencing court or the court of appeals may order the defendant confined or placed on conditional release, including bond.

(4) To reverse a sentence which is outside the sentence range, the reviewing court must find: (a) Either that the reasons supplied by the sentencing judge are not supported by the record which was before the judge or that those reasons do not justify a sentence outside the standard range for that offense; or (b) that the sentence imposed was clearly excessive or clearly too lenient.

(5) A review under this section shall be made solely upon the record that was before the sentencing court. Written briefs shall not be required and the review and decision shall be made in an expedited manner according to rules adopted by the supreme court.

(6) The court of appeals shall issue a written opinion in support of its decision whenever the judgment of the sentencing court is reversed and may issue written opinions in any other case where the court believes that a written opinion would provide guidance to sentencing judges and others in implementing this chapter and in developing a common law of sentencing within the state.

(7) The department may petition for a review of a sentence committing an offender to the custody or jurisdiction of the department. The review shall be limited to errors of law. Such petition may be filed with the court of appeals no later than ninety days after the department has actual knowledge of terms of the sentence. The petition shall include a certification by the department that all reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute at the superior court level have been exhausted.

Comment

The 1989 Legislature authorized the Department of Corrections to petition for a review of a sentence, limiting the review to errors of law.

RCW 9.94A.220 DISCHARGE UPON COMPLETION OF SENTENCE-- CERTIFICATE OF DISCHARGE--COUNSELING AFTER DISCHARGE.

When an offender has completed the requirements of the sentence, the secretary of the department or his designee shall notify the sentencing court, which shall discharge the offender and provide the offender with a certificate of discharge. The discharge shall have the effect of restoring all civil rights lost by operation of law upon conviction, and the certificate of discharge shall so state. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of an offender's prior record for purposes of determining sentences for later offenses as provided in this chapter. Nothing in this section affects or prevents use of the offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution either as an element of an offense or for impeachment purposes. A certificate of discharge is not based on a finding of rehabilitation.

Upon release from custody, the offender may apply to the department for counseling and help in adjusting to the community. This voluntary help may be provided for up to one year following the release from custody.

RCW 9.94A.230 VACATION OF OFFENDER'S RECORD OF CONVICTION.

(1) Every offender who has been discharged under RCW 9.94A.220 may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the offender's record of conviction. If the court finds the offender meets the tests prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the court may clear the record of conviction by: (a) Permitting the offender to withdraw the offender's plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty; or (b) if the offender has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, by the court setting aside the verdict of guilty; and (c) by the court dismissing the information or indictment against the offender.

(2) An offender may not have the record of conviction cleared if: (a) There are any criminal charges against the offender pending in any court of this state or another state, or in any federal court; (b) the offense was a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030; (c) the offense was a crime against persons as defined in RCW 43.43.830; (d) the offender has been convicted of a new crime in this state, another state, or federal court since the date of the offender's discharge under RCW 9.94A.220; (e) the offense is a class B felony and less than ten years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged under RCW 9.94A.220; and (f) the offense was a class C felony and less than five years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged under RCW 9.94A.220.

(3) Once the court vacates a record of conviction under subsection (1) of this section, the fact that the offender has been convicted of the offense shall not be included in the offender's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction, and the offender shall be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense. For all purposes, including responding to questions on employment applications, an offender whose conviction has been vacated may state that the offender has never been convicted of that crime. Nothing in this section affects or prevents the use of an offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution.

Comment

While all offenders may obtain a discharge under RCW 9.94A.220, only those convicted of a nonviolent offense who have remained crime-free for a specific period may earn a vacation of their conviction. This vacation of the conviction is analogous to the dismissal obtained under RCW 9.95.240 (deferred sentence). See also RCW 9.96 (Restoration of Civil Rights) and 9.96A (Employment Rights). A vacated conviction under this statute cannot be used as criminal history. The issue of whether a vacated conviction entitles an offender to possess a firearm under state law has yet to be determined by the courts; federal law precludes such possession.

RCW 9.94A.250 CLEMENCY AND PARDONS BOARD-- MEMBERSHIP-- TERMS--CHAIRMAN--BYLAWS--TRAVEL EXPENSES--STAFF.

(1) The clemency and pardons board is established as a board within the office of the governor. The board consists of five members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(2) Members of the board shall serve terms of four years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed. However, the governor shall stagger the terms by appointing one of the initial members for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, and two for terms of four years.

(3) The board shall elect a chairman from among its members and shall adopt bylaws governing the operation of the board.

(4) Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(5) The attorney general shall provide a staff as needed for the operation of the board.

RCW 9.94A.260 CLEMENCY AND PARDONS BOARD—PETITIONS FOR REVIEW AND COMMUTATION OF SENTENCES AND PARDONS—RECOMMENDATIONS.

The clemency and pardons board shall receive petitions from individuals, organizations, and the department for review and commutation of sentences and pardoning of offenders in extraordinary cases, and shall make recommendations thereon to the governor.

The board shall receive petitions from individuals or organizations for the restoration of civil rights lost by operation of state law as a result of convictions for federal offenses or out-of-state felonies. The board may issue certificates of restoration limited to the elective rights to vote and to engage in political office. Any certifications granted by the board must be filed with the secretary of state to be effective. In all other cases, the board shall make recommendations to the governor.

Comment

In addition to other duties of the Clemency and Pardons Board, the 1989 Legislature allowed individual or organizations to petition the Board for the restoration of civil rights lost after federal or out-of-state felony convictions.

RCW 9.94A.270 PROBATIONER ASSESSMENTS.

(1) Whenever a punishment imposed under this chapter requires supervision services to be provided, the offender shall pay to the department of corrections the monthly assessment, prescribed under subsection (2) of this section, which shall be for the duration of the terms of supervision and which shall be considered as payment or part payment of the cost of providing supervision to the offender. The department may exempt or defer a person from the payment of all or any part of the assessment based upon any of the following factors:

(a) The offender has diligently attempted but has been unable to obtain employment that provides the offender sufficient income to make such payments.

(b) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment.

(c) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by an examination acceptable to or ordered by the department.

(d) The offender's age prevents him from obtaining employment.

(e) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents and the payment of the assessment constitutes an undue hardship on the offender.

(f) Other extenuating circumstances as determined by the department.

(2) The department of corrections shall adopt a rule prescribing the amount of the assessment. The department may, if it finds it appropriate, prescribe a schedule of assessments that shall vary in accordance with the intensity or cost of the supervision. The department may not prescribe any assessment that is less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

(3) All amounts required to be paid under this section shall be collected by the department of corrections and deposited by the department in the dedicated fund established pursuant to RCW 72.11.040.

(4) This section shall not apply to probation services provided under an interstate compact pursuant to chapter 9.95 RCW or to probation services provided for persons placed on probation prior to June 10, 1982.

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

(a) 24 months for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1 (RCW 9A.40.020)

(b) 18 months for Burglary 1 (RCW 9A.52.020)

(c) 12 months for Assault 2 (RCW 9A.36.021), Escape 1 (RCW 9A.76.110), Kidnapping 2 (RCW 9A.40.030), Burglary 2 of a building other than a dwelling (RCW 9A.52.030), Theft of Livestock 1 or 2 (RCW 9A.56.080), or any drug offense.

(4) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice committed the offense while in a county jail or state correctional facility as that term is defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice committed one of the crimes listed in this subsection while in a county jail or state correctional facility as that term is defined in this chapter, and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive sentence range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

(a) Eighteen months for offenses committed under RCW 69.50.401(a)(1)(i) or RCW 69.50.410;

(b) Fifteen months for offenses committed under RCW 69.50.401(a)(1)(ii), (iii), and (iv);

(c) Twelve months for offenses committed under RCW 69.50.401(d).

For purposes of this subsection, all of the real property of a state correctional facility or county jail shall be deemed to be part of that facility or county jail.

(5) An additional twenty-four months shall be added to the presumptive sentence for any ranked offense involving a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW if the offense was also a violation of RCW 69.50.435.

Comment

The 1986 amendments provided that the 12-month deadly weapon penalty applies to those drug offenses defined in RCW 9.94A.030(13), instead of applying only to Delivery or Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver.

The 1986 revisions also made it clear that the deadly weapon penalties apply to anticipatory offenses to commit one of the crimes listed in subsection (3).

The 1988 Legislature added First and Second Degree Theft of Livestock to the crimes eligible for weapon penalties.

In 1989, the legislature added two enhancements for some drug crimes committed in certain locations: (1) violations of RCW 69.50.401(a) committed within 1,000 feet of a school or school bus zone, and (2) violations of RCW 69.50.401(a) or (d) committed within a county jail or state correctional facility.

The 1990 Legislature amended the sentencing grid to add a new Level XII, and renumber Levels XII through XIV. The sentence ranges in Level XI were increased.

The 1990 Legislature amended the enhancement for certain drug crimes near schools to also apply to manufacturing, delivering, and possessing with the intent to deliver in parks, public transit vehicles, and transit stop shelters (RCW 69.50.435).

V. RECOMMENDED SENTENCING GUIDELINES

RCW 9.94A.340 EQUAL APPLICATION.

The sentencing guidelines and prosecuting standards apply equally to offenders in all parts of the state, without discrimination as to any element that does not relate to the crime or the previous record of the defendant.

RCW 9.94A.350 OFFENSE SERIOUSNESS LEVEL.

The offense seriousness level is determined by the offense of conviction.

Comment

Crime Label: Offense seriousness is established by the actual crime of conviction. The crime of conviction is therefore far more significant in determining a sentence than under the former indeterminate system.

Crime Ranking: One of the most significant and time-consuming decisions made by the Commission was its ranking of crimes by seriousness. The three mandatory minimum sentences established by the Sentencing Reform Act (First Degree Murder, First Degree Assault, First Degree Rape) served as benchmarks for the Commission's work. The Commission was also assisted by the general felony classifications established by the legislature (classes A, B, and C felonies - RCW 9A.20.020). The Commission decided that given the law's emphasis on violent crimes, the seriousness levels needed to reflect this priority. Certain class C felonies were eventually ranked higher than some Class B felonies because they constituted a crime against a person.

Offense Date: The date of the offense is important because it establishes whether the guidelines apply to a particular offender's case. If the date of offense is on or before June 30, 1984, the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board and its successors must make decisions with reference to the purposes, standards, and ranges of the Sentencing Reform Act and the minimum term recommendations of the sentencing judge and prosecuting attorney. See In Re Myers, 105 Wn.2d 257 (1986). The date of the offense also influences what portion of an offender's juvenile record will be used to calculate criminal history.

Ranked Felonies: The most common felonies have been included in the Seriousness Level Table. The Commission decided not to rank certain felonies which seldom occur. The Commission will continue to recommend adjustments in Seriousness Levels as new felonies are created by the legislature. If, in the future, a significant number of persons are convicted of offenses not included in the Seriousness Level Table, the Commission will recommend appropriate seriousness levels to the legislature for those crimes.

The 1990 Legislature created an additional seriousness level at Level XI, and renumbered Levels XI through XIV, making these Levels XII through XV.

RCW 9.94A.360 OFFENDER SCORE.

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, class A and sex prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

(3) Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(4) Always include juvenile convictions for sex offenses. Include other class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include other class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(5) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(6) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score, except for juvenile prior convictions for violent offenses with separate victims, which shall count as separate offenses; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(7) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(8) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (12) or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (10), (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, Homicide by Abuse, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide or Vehicular Assault; for each felony offense or serious traffic offense, count one point for each adult and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior conviction.

(13) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count three points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and two points for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(14) If the present conviction is for Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060, or Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(16) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2 or residential burglary, count priors as in subsection (8) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

(17) If the present conviction is for a sex offense, count priors as in subsections (8) through (16) of this section; however count three points for each adult and juvenile prior sex offense conviction.

(18) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement, add one point.

Comment

Misdemeanors: The Commission decided not to include misdemeanors in the offender score for two reasons: 1) the emphasis of the legislation was on felonies, and 2) the reliability of court records varies greatly throughout the state. An exception to this policy was made in the case of felony traffic offenses. The Commission decided that for these crimes, previous serious driving misdemeanors are relevant in establishing the offender's history of similar behavior.

The Commission anticipates that in some instances an offender's history of misdemeanors may be used by the court in selecting a sentence within the standard sentence range or in departing from the range to administer an exceptional sentence.

Role of Criminal History: The Commission's mandate from the legislature was to consider both the seriousness of the crime and the nature and extent of criminal history. The Commission decided to emphasize the current offense in establishing standard sentence ranges but also to give weight to a person's past convictions, including the pattern of those convictions. Given the legislation's emphasis on sanctions for violent crimes, the Commission decided that repeat violent offenders needed to be identified and dealt with severely. As a result, the grid places an accelerated emphasis on criminal history for the repeat violent offender.

Prior Offenses: The Commission decided that the weighing of prior offenses should vary depending on the present offense. Thus, a criminal history with serious violent crime convictions counts most heavily when the current offense is also a serious violent offense; previous convictions for violent offenses count more heavily when the current offense is violent; prior burglary convictions count more heavily when the current offense is a burglary; prior drug offenses count more heavily when the current offense is a drug offense; and prior violent felony traffic offenses count more heavily when the current offense is a felony traffic offense.

Subsection 5(c) refers to prior convictions "served concurrently." The meaning of this term was addressed in State v. Hartley, 41 Wn. App. 669 (1985).

Juvenile Criminal History: Since the legislation required that certain prior juvenile felony adjudications be included as part of criminal history, the Commission needed to establish the relative weight of these felonies in comparison to adult prior felonies. The Commission decided that prior violent felony convictions, whether committed by an adult or a juvenile, should receive the same number of points if the instant offense was violent. The Commission believed that a distinction was necessary between nonviolent adult felonies and nonviolent juvenile felonies because nonviolent juvenile felonies often represent less serious conduct.

In addition, under the definition of juvenile criminal history in RCW 9.94.030(12)(b), the legislation specified that prior juvenile convictions (amended in 1986 to only address class B and C offenses) are not considered after the offender reaches age 23; the Commission therefore wanted to avoid a significant disparity between the potential Offender Score for someone at age 22 and someone at age 23. Thus, the decision was to count juvenile nonviolent felony adjudications at one-half point (rounding down to the nearest whole number).

"Wash Out" of Priors: The Commission decided that adult class A felonies should always be considered as part of the Offender Score. The Commission decided that prior class B and C felonies should eventually "wash out" and be eliminated from the Offender Score (see subsection (2)). The 1986 amendments changed the "wash out" provisions to clarify that once a crime meets the "wash out" test, it is always "washed out" and that any consecutive period of crime-free behavior can be used to meet the "wash out" test.

Out-of-State Convictions: In calculating the Offender Score, out-of-state convictions must be compared to Washington law.

The question of whether a foreign conviction constituted a felony was discussed in State v. Southerland, 43 Wn. App. 246 (1986).

The 1986 Amendments:

The 1986 amendments made several changes to this section:

- Added a definition of "prior conviction" and a definition of "other current offenses" in subsection (1);
- Provided that Class A juvenile convictions always count in the criminal history score if a juvenile was at least 15 at the time of the offense (previously, juvenile convictions no longer counted after the person was 23 years of age);
- Changed the scoring rules for felony traffic offenses;
- Clarified the fact that anticipatory offenses are to be counted the same as completed offenses for the purpose of scoring current convictions; and
- Allowed post-1986 prior adult convictions which were served concurrently to be counted separately.

The 1987 Amendments:

The 1987 amendments changed the scoring rules for First and Second Degree Escape. All prior felony convictions count in the criminal history score instead of only prior escapes counting. However, only prior escape convictions continue to count against Willful Failure to Return from Furlough and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release.

The 1988 Amendments:

The Commission recommended some changes to this section to clarify ambiguities and correct previous drafting errors. The rule on scoring for serious violent offenses (RCW 9.94A.360(10)) was amended to include Homicide by Abuse. The 1987 Legislature defined this crime as a serious violent offense, but neglected to reference it in the rules on offender scoring.

The scoring rules for felony traffic offenses were amended to clarify that prior Vehicular Assaults also receive two points. This scoring procedure was previously reflected in the Offender Score Matrix, but the narrative was not accurate. Because of drafting errors caused by having the scoring rules in two sections, the Commission recommended the Offender Score Matrix (RCW 9.94A.330) be repealed, which it was in 1988.

The 1988 Legislature added a point to the offender score if the current offense was committed while the offender was on community placement.

The 1989 Amendment: The scoring rules for drug offenses were changed by the 1989 Legislature to increase the points.

The 1990 Amendments:

Several scoring rules were changed by the 1990 Legislature. These changes are effective for crimes committed after June 30, 1990, and include:

- Adult and juvenile prior sex offenses are always included in the offender score; they do not wash out.*
- Juvenile sex offenses are counted regardless of the age of the offender at the time of commission of the juvenile offense or the current offense.*
- Juvenile prior convictions for violent offenses that are sentenced on the same day now count as separate crimes in cases involving separate victims.*
- Residential Burglary was included with First and Second Degree Burglary in the offender scoring rules. The 1989 Legislature neglected to amend this section in the bill creating the crime of Residential Burglary.*
- Prior and other current sex offenses count three points when the current conviction is a sex offense.*

RCW 9.94A.370 PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE.

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings or for those offenses enumerated in RCW 9.94A.310(4) that were committed in a state correctional facility or county jail shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, or admitted, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The facts shall be deemed proved at the hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Facts that establish the elements of a more serious crime or additional crimes may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2)(c), (d), and (e).

Comment

The Commission believed that defendants should be sentenced on the basis of facts which are acknowledged, proven, or pleaded to. Concerns were raised about facts which were not proven as an element of the conviction or the plea being used as a basis for sentence decisions, including decisions to depart from the sentence range. As a result, the "real facts policy" was adopted. Amendments in 1986 clarified that facts proven in a trial can be used by a court in determining a sentence.

If the defendant disputes information in the Presentence Investigation, it is anticipated that an evidentiary hearing will be held to resolve the issue.

RCW 9.94A.380 ALTERNATIVES TO TOTAL CONFINEMENT.

Alternatives to total confinement are available for offenders with sentences of one year or less. These alternatives include the following sentence conditions that the court may order as substitutes for total confinement: (1) One day of partial confinement may be substituted for one day of total confinement; (2) in addition, for offenders convicted of nonviolent offenses only, eight hours of community service may be substituted for one day of total confinement, with a maximum conversion limit of two hundred forty hours or thirty days. Community service hours must be completed within the period of community supervision or a time period specified by the court, which shall not exceed twenty-four months, pursuant to a schedule determined by the department.

For sentences of nonviolent offenders for one year or less, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall state its reasons in writing on the judgment and sentence form if the alternatives are not used.

Comment

One of the legislative directions to the Commission was to "emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender" (RCW 9.94A.040(5)). In fulfilling this directive, the Commission believed it was necessary to develop a flexible policy, but one that also ensures some standardization in its application. The Commission decided that by having the court set the sentence in terms of total confinement (i.e., jail time), proportionality among like offenders would be maintained. The court then has the discretion to apply alternative conversions as a substitute for total confinement for offenders with sentences less than a year. One day of partial confinement (typically work release) or eight hours of community service may replace one day of total confinement. The community service hours, however, are limited to 240 hours (30 days) and thus may only be a partial equivalent for any sentence over 30 days.

A converted sentence may include an equivalent combination of jail time, work release, and community service hours. As an example, a sentence of total confinement for nine months may be converted to five months of jail, three months of partial confinement, and one month of community service.

In 1988, the Commission recommended this subsection be rewritten to clarify that conversions to community service hours are not available for offenders convicted of violent offenses. The court is directed to indicate its reasons in writing for not using alternatives to confinement for eligible offenders.

The 1988 Legislature clarified the time period for completing community service hours.

RCW 9.94A.383 COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.

On all sentences of confinement for one year or less, the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. An offender shall be on community supervision as of the date of sentencing. However, during the time for which the offender is in total or partial confinement pursuant to the sentence or a violation of the sentence, the period of community supervision shall toll.

RCW 9.94A.386 FINES.

On all sentences under this chapter the court may impose fines according to the following ranges:

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000

RCW 9.94A.390 DEPARTURES FROM THE GUIDELINES.

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

(iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

(e) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.127.

(f) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time; or

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Comment

Standard sentence ranges represent the appropriate sanction for the "typical" case. The judge will consider individual factors when setting the determinate sentence within the standard sentence range. Some cases, however, are exceptional and require departure from the standard sentence range.

Although it was recognized that not all exceptional fact patterns can be anticipated, the Commission determined that a carefully considered nonexclusive list of appropriate justifications for departures from the standard range would be helpful to both the trial and appellate courts. This list is intended as a frame of reference for the court to use in identifying the exceptional case. The list includes examples of mitigating and aggravating factors. As the state gains more experience with this new sentencing system, additional factors may be added to this list.

One illustrative mitigating factor concerns operation of the multiple offense policy. The Commission was particularly concerned about multiple offenses committed in separate jurisdictions where separate sentencing hearings would occur, thus resulting in a higher presumptive sentence than if the crimes were committed in a single jurisdiction and there was only one hearing. In that instance, if the multiple offense policy results in such comparatively high presumptive sentences, the judge might want to consider departing from the standard sentence range in order to impose a less severe sentence, depending, of course, on the particular set of case facts. There was also concern that the multiple offense policy might sometimes result in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purposes of this chapter.

The 1986 amendments provided better enumeration of the aggravating and mitigating factors. In addition, the reference to firearm possession in major VUCSA offenses was removed. The Commission decided that when firearm use was charged, it should be used to set a sentence within the standard range or as part of a sentence enhancement under RCW 9.94A.310(3); if firearm use is not charged, it can influence the sentence only upon the stipulation of both parties under RCW 9.94A.370. The other 1986 amendment added the adjective "current" to subsection (2) to make it clear that aggravating factors only apply to the circumstances surrounding the charged offense.

The 1987 amendments added multiple prior incidents of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of 18 as an aggravating circumstance.

The 1989 Legislature added the defendant's response to physical or sexual abuse as a mitigating circumstance.

RCW 9.94A.400 CONSECUTIVE OR CONCURRENT SENTENCES.

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(f) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390. "Same criminal conduct," as used in this subsection, means two or more crimes that require the same criminal intent, are committed at the same time and place, and involve the same victim. This definition does not apply in cases involving vehicular assault or vehicular homicide if the victims occupied the same vehicle. However, the sentencing judge may consider multiple victims in such instances as an aggravating circumstance under RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's prior convictions and other current convictions that are not serious violent offenses in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of confinement, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences. Except for exceptional sentences as authorized under RCW 9.94A.120(2), if two or more sentences that run consecutively include periods of community supervision, the aggregate of the community supervision period shall not exceed twenty-four months.

Comment

Under the SRA, a sentencing judge must impose concurrent sentences. There are two exceptions to this policy: under subsection (b), a person convicted of three or more serious violent offenses arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct must be sentenced consecutively (the criminal history score is calculated differently than in subsection (a)); and under subsection (3), the sentencing judge may expressly order that the sentence be served consecutively to sentences already imposed in other jurisdictions.

Unless the offenses fall under the exceptions listed in subsection (1) (b) or subsection (3), consecutive sentences imposed for current offenses constitute exceptional sentences and must comply with the exceptional sentence provisions of the Act. See RCW 9.94A.120(15).

The 1987 amendment to subsection (1) (a) clarifies the meaning of "same criminal conduct."

The 1986 amendment to subsection (3) changed this section so sentences for all current offenses run concurrently with the sentences for all other current offenses from any other state or federal court, unless the sentencing court expressly orders the sentences to be consecutive. Previously, the presumption was that such sentences would be consecutive unless the sentencing court expressly ordered otherwise. This subsection is now consistent with pre-SRA law.

Subsections (2) and (3) cover situations, where at the time the defendant is sentenced on a present conviction, he or she has not yet completed a sentence for another felony conviction. The difference between the two subsections is the phrase "under sentence of a felony." Under (2), if at the time the present crime is committed, the defendant has not completed confinement for another sentence, the confinement for the present sentence does not begin until expiration of his or her prior sentence. These sentences are to be run consecutively and an exceptional sentence is necessary to impose concurrent sentences. Under (3), if the latter crime was committed at a point before the offender was sentenced for the previous crime, the presumption is toward a concurrent sentence but the court can decide to order a consecutive sentence.

Subsection (3) will often be relevant where the defendant has been charged in multiple informations or has committed a series of crimes across court jurisdictions (crimes in more than one county, more than one state, or crimes for which he or she has been sentenced under both state and federal jurisdictions) and where the defendant will be sentenced by more than one judge. The purpose of this subsection is to allow the judge some flexibility within the guidelines in order to minimize the incidental factors of geographical boundaries and jurisdictions.

Subsection (4) covers the situation in which a court is imposing a prison sentence for a crime committed prior to July 1, 1984, where the defendant previously received a deferred or suspended sentence and now is having that probation revoked. The sentence for the revocation runs consecutively to any sentence imposed under the new presumptive scheme unless the court expressly orders a concurrent sentence.

Subsection (5) points out that the defendant must serve all terms of total confinement on consecutive sentences before other conditions are performed. As stated earlier, the multiple offense policy was among the most complex issues confronted by the Commission and the legislature. The legislature acknowledged in RCW 9.94A.390 (aggravating and mitigating factors) that the operation of the multiple offense policy might, in individual cases, result in a "clearly excessive" or "clearly too lenient" presumptive sentence, and therefore, departures from the range may be appropriate.

This section does not apply to first-time offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(5).

In 1988, the Commission recommended RCW 9.94A.400(1)(b) be clarified to substitute the phrase "prior convictions and other current convictions that are not serious violent offenses" for the term "criminal history." In the Commission's review of sentences it was discovered that offenders convicted of multiple serious violent offenses with additional convictions for offenses that were not serious violent offenses (for example, a burglary), the lesser offenses were frequently not calculated into the offender score. The Commission decided the problem was the use of the term "criminal history" because it appeared to only include prior offenses, not additional current offenses. Thus, the new phrase was recommended.

The 1990 legislature changed the rules regarding consecutive sentencing for multiple serious violent offenses. The consecutive sentencing requirement now applies to two or more serious violent offenses instead of three.

RCW 9.94A.410 ANTICIPATORY OFFENSES.

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Comment

This section was amended by the 1986 Legislature to clarify that anticipatory offenses are to be counted in the offender score as if they were completed offenses.

RCW 9.94A.420 PRESUMPTIVE RANGES THAT EXCEED THE STATUTORY MAXIMUM.

If the presumptive sentence duration given in the sentencing grid exceeds the statutory maximum sentence for the offense, the statutory maximum sentence shall be the presumptive sentence.

VI. RECOMMENDED PROSECUTING STANDARDS FOR CHARGING AND PLEA DISPOSITIONS

RCW 9.94A.430 INTRODUCTION.

These standards are intended solely for the guidance of prosecutors in the state of Washington. They are not intended to, do not and may not be relied upon to create a right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party in litigation with the state.

RCW 9.94A.440 EVIDENTIARY SUFFICIENCY.

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

Comment

Decision Not to Prosecute: This standard and the examples previously listed were taken in large measure from the 1980 Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys' Standards for Charging and Plea Bargaining.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder. With regard to offenses prohibited by RCW 9A.44.040, 9A.44.050, 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, 9A.44.079, 9A.44.083, 9A.44.086, 9A.44.089, and 9A.64.020, the prosecutor should avoid pre-filing agreements or diversions intended to place the accused in a program of treatment or counseling, so that treatment, if determined to be beneficial, can be provided pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table below for the crimes within these categories.

Comment

Decision to Prosecute: The law stipulates two standards for the decision to prosecute: one for crimes against persons and the other for crimes against property. The standard for person crimes is intended to require a lower threshold than the standard for property crimes. The different standards reflect a need to set priorities for allocating prosecutorial resources. Crimes against persons are given more emphasis. The term "justify conviction" was chosen for person crimes because it implies a decision which, after objective review of the case, can be defended in court.

The 1989 Legislature was concerned that victims of sexual assaults were required to testify many years after initiating charges against the offender. This amendment urges prosecutors to use the Special Sexual Offender Sentencing Alternative rather than diversions for treatment which could result in trials later.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
- (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

- (a) Charging a higher degree;
- (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Comment

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charges: This standard covers the issue of how many charges to file and the degree of the charges. The standard directs prosecutors to file charges which "adequately describe the nature of the defendant's conduct," adding that other offenses should be charged for one of the two reasons. The term "adequately describe" was chosen over the phrase "accurately describe." Prosecutors are also directed not to overcharge in order to obtain a guilty plea. Although it is difficult to precisely define overcharging, this standard is intended to serve as a strong principle for prosecutors' actions.

Investigation Techniques: The Commission agreed that the prosecutors should make an affirmative effort to discover what investigatory techniques were used by the police. The use of certain techniques may influence the relative strength of the case and the filing standard due to potential constitutional challenges.

RCW 9.94A.450 PLEA DISPOSITIONS.

STANDARD: (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a defendant will normally be expected to plead guilty to the charge or charges which adequately describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct or go to trial.

(2) In certain circumstances, a plea agreement with a defendant in exchange for a plea of guilty to a charge or charges that may not fully describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct may be necessary and in the public interest. Such situations may include the following:

- (a) Evidentiary problems which make conviction on the original charges doubtful;
- (b) The defendant's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others whose criminal conduct is more serious or represents a greater public threat;
- (c) A request by the victim when it is not the result of pressure from the defendant;
- (d) The discovery of facts which mitigate the seriousness of the defendant's conduct;
- (e) The correction of errors in the initial charging decision;
- (f) The defendant's history with respect to criminal activity;
- (g) The nature and seriousness of the offense or offenses charged;
- (h) The probable effect on witnesses.

RCW 9.94A.460 SENTENCE RECOMMENDATIONS.

STANDARD:

The prosecutor may reach an agreement regarding sentence recommendations.

The prosecutor shall not agree to withhold relevant information from the court concerning the plea agreement.

Comment

Because the court will have the responsibility of approving plea agreements, the Commission was very concerned that information not be withheld from the court as the result of a plea agreement. This standard prohibits the prosecutor from withholding relevant information from the court as part of any agreement.

INTRODUCTION: SCORING FORMS

Contents and Organization

1990 Sentencing Amendments

In 1990, the scoring forms were revised due to changes in the law, including:

- The Seriousness Levels of most sex offenses were increased;
- Offender scoring points for multiple current or prior sex offenses were increased;
- Crimes with a sexual motivation finding are defined as sex offenses and scored as such;
- The "school zone" enhancement, referred to in this manual as a "protected zone" enhancement, was expanded to include drug crimes that occur in a park, on a public transit vehicle, or in a transit stop shelter;
- The new crime of Residential Burglary became effective on July 1, 1990, and is ranked at Level IV;
- Second Degree Burglary was increased from Level II to Level III;
- Sexual Exploitation became an unranked crime in 1989 due to statutory changes in the crime's elements. It was reranked by the 1990 Legislature at Level IX;
- Prior violent juvenile offenses with separate victims are now scored separately even if they were sentenced on the same day.

1991 Sentencing Amendments

The scoring forms were only minimally altered as a result of changes in the law.

- The offense seriousness level of: "Selling for profit (controlled or counterfeit) any controlled substances (except heroin)" (RCW 69.50.410) has been increased to a level VIII. This is the same level as: "Selling heroin for profit". Thus the two are combined into one offense reference sheet.
- Offenders convicted of "Selling for Profit" are no longer eligible for "First-Time Offender Waiver".

- All references to "Driving while intoxicated" have been changed to: "Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug".
- All serious violent scoring forms were changed to correct an error in calculation of offender score.

APPENDIX B

CLASSIFICATION OF FELONY OFFENSES

INTRODUCTION

All felonies are divided into three classes: A, B, and C. This classification is related to a felony's washout period (RCW 9.94A.360(2),(4)), vacation of conviction record (RCW 9.94A.230(2)), status as a violent offense (Class A felonies are defined as violent--RCW 9.94A.030(33)), and statutory maximum period of incarceration.

Felonies for which no punishment is specially prescribed by any statutory provision shall be punished by confinement for not more than ten years and a fine not to exceed $20,000 or both (RCW 9.92.010).

Felonies defined by Title 9A RCW have an A, B, or C class designation explicitly stated. These felonies carry the following maximum penalties (RCW 9A.20.021):

Class A	Life in prison, $50,000 fine
Class B	10 years in prison, $20,000 fine
Class C	5 years in prison, $10,000 fine

Felonies defined outside of Title 9A RCW are designated as class A, B, or C felonies according to the statutory maximum period of incarceration for that offense (RCW 9A.20.040):

20 years or more	Class A
8 or more, less than 20 years	Class B
Less than 8 years	Class C
